Recorder Philosophy

The big ship weathers the storm, so does the big man.

Men often quarrel because they don't know what is right.

One of our notions is that every one is subject to occasional crazy spells.

The price of farm land near Bandon keeps going up to keep pace with the Bandon real estate.

The energy of some reformers seems to become exhausted about the time of landing the office.

A vice commission generally succeeds in finding out at least as much as the people already know.

So far as we are concerned all the land the Japs can get, after getting past the real estate agents, they are welcome to.

No doubt the Californians would be willing to compromise by furnishing a few thousand Japs enough land for burial purposes.

The Jap in Chicago who killed himself because he did not like the California land laws may have been patriotic but we have a lurking suspicion that he was crazy.

The gods of war are pouring out the vials of wrath upon the nations of earth and our potatoes are not planted yet. Things are coming to a pretty pass.

The people who sell sugar are asking those who buy sugar to protest their respective congressmen against lower prices. Nothing doing here. That is what we call nerve.

In case of war between the United States and Japan, the sympathy of the world would be with Japan because Japan is the smaller. The equities of the case would be little considered.

Captain Dollar says there is coal enough in Coos county to keep a big fleet busy and to furnish employment for thousands of miners for all time to come—so far as your time is concerned.

The RECORDER is still of the opinion that Bandon will have two railroads before long. Bonds are being negotiated for the Grants Pass road. The Southern Pacific are actually building as fast as they can.

We are in favor of permitting our daring diplomats to engage the Japanese jingos in any old kind of a scrap necessary to settle the great and grueling question of how much dirt a Jap should have in order to raise enough spuds to last through the winter.

Great problem: Why is it that women persist in dressing in such scanty apparel? Pulpit and press keep hammering away for a solution. But here is the solution: It is because the women are really kind enough to try to please the men. The men want the women to dress just as they do dress.

Did you notice that when Bryan delivered the message to the California legislature it was Wilson's message? And also that Bryan had nothing to say except what he was sent to say? Yet some of the big papers keep telling us that Bryan can't stop talking and that Bryan is running the administration. Bosh!

What a predicament Mexico would be in if some one should steal all their ammunition or put all their guns out of commission. That would be too bad because the fighting element would be forced to go work instead of preying on those who are trying to work under such trying circumstances.

The Morning Oregonian wants to know why the police force in American are so corrupt, as evidenced in

New York, San Francisco, and other cities. The RECORDER essays a partial answer. Dress a man up in military uniform, arm him with a gun in one hand and a bludgeon in the other, authorize him to take away the liberty of his fellows and even their lives and the taking of a little graft money follows as an insignificant but logical sequence of the bruiser's general business of blood and bluster. A policeman should be a man of highest ideals with a keen sense of justice and humanity. One who wants to be a policeman is nearly sure to be disqualified for the office. And that is "what is the matter" with our police forces, especially in large cities where temptations are great to unite with the crooked element to prey on society. They do not possess the character to resist the demoralizing influence of their peculiarly cruel and hateful business.
