The Nonpareil thinks that the S. P. will build the line from Drain to Coos Bay, even if they finally decide to build from Eugene via Siuslaw and Umqua. Vice-President Calvin is quoted as saying that the Drain route would be the best one, as it would reach Southern Oregon with a lesser mileage than other competing points.

The large cable which was taken by the Rustler to the Siuslaw, early last week, has been used in pulling the Anvil off the beach. A late arrival from there says that the Anvil has been repaired and is in pretty good shape. When he left, she had been moved several hundred feet towards the river channel, and it was generally believed that the vessel would be saved.—Coos Bay News.

After June 5th, the new law, which will then become effective, requires a medical certificate to be filed with the County Clerk by every male person who applies for a marriage license. This certificate must be signed and sworn to by a physician duly authorized to practice medicine within the state of Oregon. The physician must certify that he has examined the applicant and "that from said examination I have found said applicant to be free from contagious or infectious venereal disease."

Please Return Books.

Patrons of the Bandon Public Library who are keeping books out over time are asked to bring such books back to the library without further delay.

Unless an overdue book is returned promptly and the fine paid, the borrower is no longer allowed the privileges of the library.

On account of the limited number of books now in the library, it is absolutely necessary that books be returned on date when due, so that the books may be kept in circulation. After a stated time, the names of those who keep books out over time, will be published.
