Clayton Meade is now fixing up the room recently occupied by the Bandon Bakery on First street for a pool hall and cigar and confectionery store. He will have a neat up-to-date place and will no doubt receive an excellent patronage.

P. E. Tomlinson of Salem spent several days in Bandon last week, looking for financial investments. Mr. Tomlinson is in the thoroughbred stock business, being proprietor of the Maplewood Stock Farm near Salem. This gentleman visited Bandon in 1879 and this is his first visit since and he is very favorably impressed with the improvement in that time.

Dr. S. C. Endicott and wife left Wednesday for Coquille where they will be joined by Dr. C. W. Endicott and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lyons, and the party will take a few days hunting and fishing trip in the neighborhood of Remote.

Editor A. R. O'Brien, of the Record, received the sad intelligence last Thursday of the death of his father, Joseph P. O'Brien, which occurred at the City of Mexico, aged 59 years. Deceased was a practical mining engineer with large investments in Mexican properties. He had spent nearly a quarter of a century in that territory and had seen the sieges of the rebels against the Capital. The remains were temporarily laid to rest in the City of Mexico, but when quiet is restored will be brought home to the United States and placed beside his son, who recently departed this life at Denver. Editor O'Brien shares the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in mourning the death of his father.—Coos Bay Sun.

Herbert Armstrong of North Bend was in Bandon Tuesday.

Herbert Brown, O. W. Gibson, and F. J. Feeney left Thursday for a hunting trip out in the jungles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Van Leuven left on the Breakwater for Tacoma, Wash., where they will make their future home.

F. A. Golden, County Supervisor of schools has been in this section for a few days inspecting conditions in county schools near here.

J. D. Mills the genial clerk at the Hotel Gallier is taking a vacation in San Francisco and "Pat" Rackleff is head clerk during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wade arrived here from Pendleton yesterday and are visiting their son C. R. Wade and family. This is the first time Mr. Wade Sr. has seen his little grandson.

Walter S. Wells, proprietor of the Orange Pharmacy, accompanied by his brother and another gentleman from Marshfield are taking a hunting and fishing outing in Curry county.

Bishop Scadding and wife arrived Wednesday from Portland and will occupy their summer cottage on the beach for a month or so while the Bishop looks after the work of his church between Port Orford and Gardiner.

Art Coach is moving his Louvre Cafe into the Lorenz Building and will open for business Saturday night. He will also put in a dance hall on the second story the floor will be made of maple and will be put in the very best of condition.

A party of eight people from Portland composed of R. F. Cox, Ed Cooper, L. R. Barton, C. O. Hoffman, W. A. Healey, Dr. C. W. Sheppard, Pat Hamon, and P. C. Wood came down Wednesday and left yesterday for the jungles of Curry County for a hunting trip.

Quite a curiosity in the shape of a potato, or rather two potatoes one growing inside the other, is on display in the RECORDER's front window. The potato was given to us by Mr. Hokum and came from the W. H. Butson place on Spruce St.

The English Tailoring Co. of San Francisco is opening up a branch house in Bandon under the management of E. J. Ableson. The place of business will be in the Hartman concrete building next door to the RECORDER office. They will be open for business tomorrow. Read their half page ad in this issue.

A Big Bundle of Currency

is a pretty dangerous thing to display or to be known to be about you. But a check book of this bank is never a temptation to violence. It is of no use except to the owner. Why not carry such a book instead of the dangerous cash. Some murdered men would still be living if they had followed that prudential plan.
