Recorder Philosophy

Selfishness prevents growth. A call to arms—the cry of baby. Authority is mostly official impudence.

Love affairs usually terminate fatally—to love. The average man is crazy enough without the use of drugs.

Dr. Bailey K. Leach ought to draw fairly well now as a lecturer. Somehow we never could believe that woman came from old Adam's rib.

If the mirror revealed moral weaknesses no one would ever look in it at all.

The reason for the split skirt is at last revealed; the women are going to wear pocket stockings.

Women are better church goers than men; but women do not read the Bible so more than men.

While the electric chair is more popular than a rope still it can hardly be called a comfortable seat.

Notwithstanding the passengers want to get off the ship, when the boat runs aground every one on board is terror stricken.

The biggest thing in the United States just now is base ball. There will be nothing doing of any importance until the contract between New York and Philadelphia is ended.

Anti-suffragettes declare that if women are made strong and independent the chivalry of man will be destroyed. The kind of chivalry that thrives upon the basis of woman's weakness should be destroyed.

The RECORDER is willing to donate a bouquet to Mr. Howard Foster star of the Foster-Elliott Stock Co. playing this week at the Orpheum. Mr. Foster's conception of real acting is modern. He acts natural, just like a human being, with a touch of humor even in the more serious parts. He is well supported.

Give Boys and Girls Chance.

No state in the Union is curtailing its educational expenditures. No state is reducing the number of its avenues to higher learning. Every state long ago decided that the doubled or trebled efficiency of educated men and women constitutes a highly profitable State investment. Instead of closing up existing educational establishments, most states are adding as many new ones as possible. No state—except Oregon—is starving the institutions it has called into being.

At best, the life struggle is hard. Congested population has brought new problems and new conditions that tend to pull men down and hold them back. Many a father knows how much he has lost in life by lack of early training. Many a mother keenly realizes the handicaps of stunted education.

We, of Oregon, ought to give the boys and girls every chance. No gate to knowledge should be closed to them. No door to useful training should be locked or barred against them. Instead of shutting up the gates to education we should open them wider.

Education is working capital that when acquired cannot be taken away. A panic may sweep away their life's savings. Misfortune may deprive them of hearing, or sight, or limbs. Nothing can take away their education. When it is once acquired it is theirs for life.

Give the boys and girls of Oregon every chance. If you are in doubt, throw your influence on the side of your children by voting for the University appropriation. Vote 300 yes. Vote 302 yes.

Coming Election Measures.

At the special referendum election on November 4 the people of Oregon will be called upon to decide five questions, and that they may cast their ballot intelligently they should familiarize themselves with the several measures. The Sentinel has, and will continue to oppose the unwarranted appropriations for the University of Oregon so long as that institution is merely a tool in the hands of politicians and log-rollers who dodge behind the higher education goat. The several measures are as follows.

Shall an appropriation of $100,000 made by the 1913 legislature, for construct and equip an administration and classroom building for the University of Oregon and to extend the heating plant through it, be permitted to stand?

Shall an appropriation of $75,000 made by the 1913 legislature, for additions and repairs to three University of Oregon buildings and to the University's central heating plant, be permitted to stand?

Shall the Sterilization Act, passed by the 1913 Legislature, to protect the public from habitual criminals and moral degenerates be permitted to stand?

Shall the act of the 1913 Legislature providing a county attorney for each county and fixing salaries, stand?

Shall the Workmen's Compensation Act stand?

Where Should Schools Go?

No comprehensive plan for consolidating the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College lies behind the claim of the men behind the referendum on the University's two building and repair appropriations.

If the two institutions were to be consolidated—even if the experience of other states and the peculiar conditions in Oregon were not both profoundly against consolidation—where would the combined institution be put? Should it go to Salem, where most of the other state institutions are? Should both well established schools be dragged up by the roots and moved to Portland? Should the $750,000 plant at Eugene be abandoned and an endeavor be made to graft upon the Agricultural College faculties of medicine and of law and half a dozen others? Should the still more valuable plant at Corvallis be permitted to lie waste and an attempt be made to start an agricultural department at Eugene?

Or where should the consolidated institution go? If not to Portland or Salem or Eugene or Corvallis, then where? There can be nothing under consolidation that does not already exist—except, perhaps, harm to the state's great Agricultural College.

New Clock For Library.

The Bandon Public Library is the possessor of a brand new wall clock, the gift of Sabro Bros. Manufacturing Jewelers. This gift is much appreciated by the Library Board and especially by Miss Henry the librarian.

The library has also recently added 16 new books among which is the very valuable book, "The Rise of the Dutch Republic." Miss Henry the librarian also informs us that she has now completed the new card catalog.

Hens for Sale.—Leghorns and mixed. 60c a piece.—F. J. Chatburn.

Nothing Like That.

The following clipping appeared in the Portland Journal and as Mr. Bennett and Mr. Flanagan have not been in Portland for some time it is evident the reporter who wrote the article was "stung" by no less a joker than Hon. J. N. Neal. The danger which Mr. Bennett and Mr. Flanagan encountered is told by the Journal as follows:

Joseph W. Bennett and James H. Flanagan, well known bankers and prominent citizens of Marshfield have been in the city for several days. They had dined at the Lowrie and the waiter having in mind the size of his probable tip, deleteriously murmured, "Shall I bring you in a couple of demitasses?" "For the love of God, no!" Bennett answered. "Sure, our wives might come in any minute.—Marshfield Record.
