Recorder Philosophy

Coos County coal is beginning to move.

Testing the law means testing the judges.

Huerta will be boss as long as his soldiers hold out.

You are bound to be laughed at when you get hurt.

Most of the rights by lineage have been hatched up by tyrants.

Bandon still grows, and we don't mind if you are all from Missouri.

A man who laughs when he is real mad is a dangerous opponent.

It is the proper thing to preach forgiveness but no one really forgives.

To know how to run a machine is more important than to know how to spell it.

Any man who is well acquainted with himself ought to be more or less humble.

Every father admires his young son who stands up and fights when imposed upon.

If woman is man's equal we contend she has the right to be as immodest as her brother.

It doesn't settle an argument by telling your opponent that his remarks have no weight whatever with you.

You have no more right to sneer at a lazy person than to sneer at one with the consumption. Laziness is a disease.

When Tammany gets through with Sulzer we suggest the Colonel, and we are betting that T. R. would lick Tammany to a frazzle.

Things are of relative importance. We think it of more importance to do unto others as you would be done by than to wrangle over the authority of the priesthood.

When one vice den is closed by the police another opens to take its place. Immorality is as far beyond the cure of the policeman as it is beyond the inmate of the penitentiary. It is largely an economic question.

When the Mexican President Huerta, runs out of parliamentary law he resorts to military law in Mexican Congress. Huerta has risen to a point of order, so to speak, and has enforced it by putting all of his congressman in jail.

Why certain newspaper writers get excited and throw fits because Mrs. Pankhurst is coming to America to lecture on woman's rights? Any man who can't hear Mrs. Pankhurst express her views without getting excited and raising a row ought to wear a ball and chain.

Oregon News.

Preliminary plans have been made and another conference will be held at Albany on October 30 in the movement to combine the eight Willamette Valley counties in the preparation and installation of a great valley exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. It has been decided that this is a better plan than to attempt to put in an exhibit from each county. The proposition has met with general approval and its success is already assured.

Hatched in April, 1912, and commencing to lay at the age of five and one-half months, a hen at the Oregon Agricultural College has broken the world's record for the production of cackleberries in one year. She laid 283 eggs in twelve months, which is the highest record in the United States and two more than the world's record. Her most notable feat, and which probably has never been equaled, was the laying of 99 eggs in 100 consecutive days during the spring months. The hen is a cross between the Plymouth Rock and White Leghorn breeds.

A prominent citizen of this city who has lately returned from Europe states that there is no doubt that there will be a rush of immigrants to the Pacific Coast as soon as the Panama Canal is open to general traffic. The steamship companies are selling tickets on the installment plan, accepting small weekly payments and allowing interest on such deposits. In this way families can pay for their transportation with comparative ease whereas raising the money for the tickets in a lump sum would be impossible. The prospective immigrants are mostly of the farming class and they are not particular as to just where they land. Anywhere the steamer happens to stop will suit them. They evidently figure that while some places on the coast may be better than others, any place is good enough.

Thirty volunteers have been enrolled in this city to start a campaign of education in favor of the interstate bridge between Multnomah, county, in Oregon, and Clark county in Washington. All the civic clubs and organizations of Portland are lined up behind this movement and it is expected the bond issue to be voted on at the November election will carry by a great majority.

Giants and White Sox Will Play in Portland.

Portland baseball fans will see the New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox, who are to tour the world, in action on the Vaughn street park Tuesday, November 18, Judge McCredie having accepted Charles A. Comiskey's proposition to play here at noon today.

The big leaguers will play an exhibition game in Medford, Or., November 16, and will have plenty of chance to rest before the game here. They will embark at Vancouver, B. C., for the orient after playing exhibition games at Seattle and Tacoma.

Practically the full strength of the Giants and the White Sox will be carried by each club. Judge McCredie stated that he did not know what prices the major leagues would ask for admission, and wired for information.—Portland Journal.

Jack Johnson's Bond is Forfeited.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—United States Judge Carpenter today declared forfeited the $30,000 personal bond of Jack Johnson, the negro prizefighter, put up when he appealed from conviction on a charge of white slavery.

The case was called in the federal court this morning and the bond was ordered forfeited when Johnson failed to appear.

Benjamin Bachrach, Johnson's attorney, requested a continuance of the case, saying he was convinced his client would return after finishing his vaudeville engagements. Judge Carpenter, however, refused to entertain the request.

United States District Attorney James Wilkerson announced that he would proceed immediately to recover the forfeited $30,000 bond by seeking judgment on saloon property offered as security.

Wilkerson said he might request that the French government recognize any judgment obtained in the American court and levy against personal property the fighter may have in France. Wilkerson said he thought France would acquiesce.
