Peoples Toy Land

Santa Claus has decided to use an airship this year and he will make his headquarters at the Peoples 5-10-15c Store. We have conclusively demonstrated to most of you that we can save you money on your every day wants. But on your Xmas gifts and toys we will prove to you the value of a 5-10-15c store in your midst.

Stop, Think! Two or three 15c toys will please a child better than one $2.00 toy. Why not, then try to cut the high cost of living.

MODERN RIP AWAKES FROM 9 YEARS' SLEEP
 Like the Van Winkle of Irving, He Finds Many Changes.

Tarrytown, N. Y.—A living Rip Van Winkle, awakening from nine years of oblivion to find old friends dead and his children grown to manhood, walks, bewildered, in the streets of his home town, in that very Sleepy Hollow country of which Irving, author of Rip, wrote many tales.

He is Hyman Levy, long a leading merchant in Tarrytown before the "sleep" of years began. It was a mental cloud that shrouded him and made him almost as one dead to his friends.

Now, with tottering step, but clear seeing eyes, he has come slowly back from the mysterious wilderness of lost memory.

He sees new faces that are somehow old—the faces of the children who are men and women now. He seeks the haunts of former friends to find them held by strangers. Many that he knew are now but names upon the grave-stones in Sleepy Hollow cemetery.

But Levy's is not a mournful awakening. There are scores of his old cronies alive and rejoicing in his recovery. He remembers them all. He remembers everything that happened up to nine years ago. These nine years are an utter blank.

At the height of his business career he worried so much over a scratch on his leg which was infected that he became ill. He recovered physically, but made himself a hermit in his home. When he went out, at long intervals, he passed his friends without recognition.

Very Complimentary.
 Mrs. Gray (meeting two acquaintances on the parade)—Oh, I didn't know you were here, Mrs. Greene! Awfully pleased! You must come and spend an evening with us.
 Mrs. Greene—It's very kind of you, but you must really excuse us. You see, we've never been in the place before, and we're only here for a few days, so, of course, we must make the best use of our time.—London Express.

NAVY NEGLIGENCE.
 Daniels Wants Number of Chaplains Increased.

Newport News, Va.—Neglect of religion by the United States in the navy is a reproach to the republic, Secretary Daniels declared here in an address before the United Brotherhood of Men's Bible Classes. The secretary announced that he would ask congress immediately to provide chaplains and welfare studies proportionate to the navy's personnel.

Twenty-four chaplains, he said, are all that the government now provides to look after the religious welfare of the navy's 67,000 men, the number of chaplains not having been increased since 1842, when the personnel of the navy numbered only 12,000 men.

The secretary added that more than seventy-five important ships in the navy have no religious tender attached, while the marine corps, with an enlistment of 10,226 men, has not a single chaplain to look after the spiritual development of its personnel.

CHILDREN WORK IN MILLS.
 10.4 Per Cent of Employees in Cotton Mills Under Sixteen Years Old.

Washington.—Of the 387,771 persons employed in the cotton goods industry in 1909 in the United States, 39,309, or 10.4 per cent, were children under sixteen years of age and half of them girls, according to a final report of the census bureau. Alabama, North and South Carolina employ 19 per cent of children and Massachusetts 5.7 per cent. These children worked on an average of from fifty-four to sixty hours a week.

The 1,324 establishments in the industry produced $628,391,813 worth of goods. The cost of materials totaled $371,069,470, and the total paid in salaries and wages was $147,270,903.

There was an increase of the previous census of 25.5 per cent in the number of plants, and the total capital invested in the industry in 1909 was $822,237,529, an increase of 76 per cent over 1900.

Experience.
 "How did you come out of that deal in Wall street?"
 "I got several thousand dollars' worth of experience. But the price on experience has gone away off, with no chance that I can see of recovering."—Exchange.
