

BANDON DRY GOODS SOLD

H. A. Murphy Buys Large Stock and Will Continue Business So Successfully Conducted by W. E. Catterlin.

MR. CATERLIN WILL REMAIN IN BANDON.

Store is One of Largest Dry Goods Houses in Coos County.—Second Venture in Bandon for the New Owner.

H. A. Murphy, who has been managing the Peoples 5-10-15c store since it was started last fall, has bought the large stock of the Bandon Dry Goods Co. from W. E. Catterlin and invoicing was commenced Saturday morning and will probably be completed today.

Mr. Murphy will continue the business on an equally large scale at the same stand and will also continue the 5-10-15c store.

We are also pleased to announce that Mr. Catterlin does not contemplate leaving our city, but will probably embark in other business here.

Returns With Bride.

Mr. H. E. Morton, of the firm of Morton & Whalen, jewelers, returned the latter part of last week from Portland with his bride, who was formerly Miss Hazel Ray Wilkinson. Of the wedding the Oregonian of Sunday, February 8, has the following to say:

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, January 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilkinson, 222 East First street North, when their daughter, Hazel Ray, was married to Harley Eugene Morton. Rev. A. B. Calder, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church officiated, the ceremony taking place under a white floral wedding bell. The house was decorated elaborately in white and green, large tulle bows being effectively used. The bride's gown was of ivory white charmeuse, trimmed with real lace. Her tulle veil was fashioned in a cap effect banded with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian G. Carpenter, who was maid of honor, was gowned in pale blue crepe de chine with waist of Oriental lace with pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of pale pink carnations. Howard Wahlen was best man.

A buffet supper was served after the ceremony. Mr. Morton is engaged in business in Bandon, where the young couple will make their home.

New Engineer Takes Up Work.

J. S. Sawyer, the newly appointed City Engineer, who takes the place of P. A. Sandberg, resigned, started in on his work Saturday and is now busily engaged in making plans and specifications for the various city works.

Mr. Sawyer was in the engineering department for the city of Medford for three years and helped to make about a million and a half dollars worth of improvements, consequently he is well versed in municipal engineering.

Mr. Sandberg will probably spend this week finishing up his work and will then embark in other business. He expects to remain in Bandon until spring at least.

W. P. Geisendorfer, manager of the Cantara Lumber Co. for Siskiyou county, Calif., arrived on the Fifield Saturday for a visit of a week with his brother, Geo. Geisendorfer, and family.

Population Figures.

Some local statistic sharks have been figuring out that the taxes in Coos county run to surprising figures and they have handed The Record the following findings. They figured the population of Marshfield 6,000, Bandon 3,000, North Bend 3,000, Coquille 2,000 and Eastside 250. In applying the figuring along this path they find that Marshfield is paying $20 per capita, North Bend $25, Bandon $16, Coquille $14, and Eastside $37. This is not given as accurate, neither do the statisticians claim the figures are entirely correct, although they say they are approximate.—Marshfield Record.

IMPROVE ROADS NO DEAL YET?

R. E. L. Bedillion in Interview at Roseburg.—He Boosts Bandon.

R. E. L. Bedillion, a heavy stockholder in the Bandon Woolen Mills, and one of Coos county's best known residents, is spending a few days in Roseburg on business.

Incidentally, Mr. Bedillion is talking good roads, being especially interested in the present almost impassable highway connecting Roseburg and Myrtle Point. While admitting that the permanent improvement of the road would be worth millions of dollars to Coos Bay, Mr. Bedillion does not lose sight of the fact that much would be gained in a financial way by Roseburg and other valley towns.

Bandon is a natural summer resort, according to Mr. Bedillion, and with a passable highway between Roseburg and the coast, thousands of valley people would visit there during the summer months. He says the people of Bandon are a progressive class and are doing everything possible to bring about an improvement of the Myrtle Point road. This highway, Mr. Bedillion contends is the feasible route to the coast, and is the only road worthy of any great expenditure. The people of Coos county are at present circulating petitions authorizing the issuance of bonds for good roads, states Mr. Bedillion. In the event Douglas county does it share in the direction of improving the Myrtle Point road, much of the money realized from the Coos Bay bonds will be spent on the thoroughfare from Myrtle Point to the Douglas county line.

Mr. Bedillion says a good and permanent highway between Roseburg and Myrtle Point would be the means of stimulating an interchange of commerce which would total many thousands of dollars in a few years. Mr. Bedillion expects to leave Roseburg tonight or tomorrow.—Umpqua Valley News.

Coming to the Grand.

"The Last Days of Pompeii." This tremendous film has been the talk of the civilized world. It is years ahead of the present day photo drama and reveals to the public the marvelous possibilities of the motion picture camera. Shown in the best theatres throughout the world at prices ranging from fifty cents to a dollar, "The Last Days of Pompeii" has exceeded all previous records for attendance. It has met with unanimous endorsement from press and pulpit alike. Description of this wonderful masterwork is utterly futile. To see it with your own eyes is the only way to get a complete understanding of this, one of the greatest disasters that ancient history has chronicled.

It has taken much effort and perseverance by the management of Grand Theatre to persuade the Pacific Coast agent of "The Last Days of Pompeii," to bring this subject to Coos county and exhibit this feature at an admission price that everybody can afford to meet.

"The Last days of Pompeii," comes complete in six reels. Two shows will be given, one beginning at 7:00 p. m. and at 9:00 p. m. The date is Friday February 20th. The admission will be for adults 25c children 15c.

Manager Bedillion of Bandon Says Nothing Has Been Closed About Deal.

R. E. L. Bedillion, head of the Bandon Woolen Mills, left for his home at Bandon this afternoon after spending a day on the Bay looking over possible new sites for the Woolen mill which have been offered him if he will move the factory to Coos Bay.

The report circulated here that he had signed up an agreement to locate the factory at Crawford Point or anywhere else is incorrect, as he has not signed anything of the kind. The matter is just as was published in The Times the other day and that is that negotiations are on.

Mr. Bedillion is in the field for a new location and plans to considerably enlarge the Bandon Woolen Mill. Under the new tariff he sees a chance to vastly increase its scope and profits and wants to take advantage of the opportunity presented.

The Bandon Woolen Mill has been a big factor for Bandon and will be for any point that gets it. It is a growing factory and one of the kind that President McLain of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce and others have been advocating that Coos Bay needs for its development.

The Marshfield Chamber of Commerce last evening discussed the matter and today members of the executive committee conferred with Mr. Bedillion. As long as Mr. Bedillion has not definitely decided upon a location they wish to do anything they can to help him locate on Coos Bay. So far, the proposition is purely a tentative one.

The matter will probably be decided definitely within the next few days.—Coos Bay Times.

Work is Progressing.

The Eugene Guard of January 30th says: Reporting the Coos Bay cities lively and railroad work on the Eugene-Marshfield branch of the Southern-Pacific railway progressing rapidly. Thomas Dixon, superintendent of construction for the MacArthur-Perks company, contractors, arrived home this forenoon from a trip to the Southern end of the road.

Mr. Dixon said this afternoon that his company has a large force of men at each of two tunnels, No. 6, three miles north of Gardiner, and No. 7, ten miles south of that place. No. 6, which is to be 1500 feet long, is in over 245 feet and No. 7, which will be 4300 feet long is over half completed.

The company also has a steam shovel and a good sized crew of men at work at the north approach to the site of the bridge which is to span an arm of Coos Bay to enter Marshfield.

"Early in the spring, or just as soon as the weather will permit," said Superintendent Dixon, "we will place a large force of men at work on the grade and push it as fast as possible. We will have as large a crew as we did last year or perhaps larger. No grade work can be done at this time of year on account of the softness of the earth."

M. G. Pohl, the optician, has moved his office to Sabro Bros. Jewelry store, where he has opened a parlor equipped with the most modern appliances for the correct fitting of eye-glasses.

Women's Commercial Club Met Friday.

The Women's Commercial Club met in the Commercial Club rooms Friday afternoon Jan. 30. The attendance was large and the members expressed great interest in plans for civic betterment and sanitation which were proposed for spring work. It was determined to inquire into the best and most practical methods for exterminating the house fly and to take advantage of the information given out by Dr. Hodge. Mrs. Guy Dipple was asked to present this work to the club at the next meeting.

Mrs. Kronenberg, Mrs. Garfield and Mrs. Mann will report on matters which can be taken up by the club during the spring. The club now has sixty-nine members enrolled and cordially invites all women to be present at the next meeting February thirteenth.

Newspaper Men in Court.

There was considerable astonishment here Monday when it became known that J. C. Savage had brought suit against Lew A. Cates for a court settlement of their partnership business in the publication of The Sentinel during the past year. Mr. Savage alleges in his petition that Mr. Cates still holds $1800 of funds belonging to the firm, and asks for an accounting and settlement. The case is expected to come up for trial at the April term of the Circuit Court here.—Coquille Sentinel.

Dancing Party.

Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Sorensen and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Richards entertained at a dancing party at the Wigwam Friday night, and it was one of the most elaborate social affairs of the season.

The Wigwam was beautifully decorated with streamers of Oregon greenery and red hearts were everywhere in evidence, the decorations being in honor of St. Valentine's Day. Everywhere about the walls were beautiful decorations and the orchestra platform was a perfect bower of greens. The music was furnished by Kausrud's orchestra, which always insures that that part is well taken care of.

Everybody present enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent and the refreshments consisting of punch and cake were exceedingly delicious. Card tables were also prepared and a number who did not care to dance passed the evening that way.

Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames C. R. Wade, Harry Morrison, P. A. Sandberg, A. S. Elliott, F. J. Feeney, W. E. Craine, N. J. Crain, J. T. Sullivan, F. L. Greenough, Robt. Johnson, C. McC. At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Coquille Valley Telephone Co., held at Coquille last Monday, the following directors were elected: I. T. Weekly, Isom Robison, Geo. Davis, Jesse Clinton and David Mc Nair. A resolution to cut down the number of directors to three was presented but failed to carry.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Coquille River Manufacturing Co. yesterday the following directors were elected: Dr. H. L. Houston, C. S. Smith, C. McC. Johnson, R. W. Bullard and F. S. Bandon Loses Again.

The Bandon High School basketball team lost the game to North Bend Friday night by the very close score of 26 to 30. The game was snappy throughout and the result was in doubt right up to the very last.

The North Bend team was much heavier than the Bandon team, thus giving them an advantage, but the local boys are faster and thus the game was made quite even.

No Danger From Diphtheria

Dr. Smith J. Mann, city health officer informs The Recorder that there is no more danger from infection of diphtheria of the cases which have been under quarantine and there are no indications of any new cases developing, consequently those people who have been keeping their children out of school on account of the diphtheria scare may rest at ease and start their children to school again as there is absolutely no more danger of infection.

D. M. Averill, who is in the East buying goods for his summer trade, is expected home within the next week.

Geo. W. Moore, president of the Moore Lumber Co., returned on the Fifield from Berkeley and San Francisco, where he has been visiting his family and looking after business interests.
