Official Cow Records.

In order to be admitted to advanced registry a cow must produce a certain amount of butterfat within a given period. The rules are made by the associations and differ with the different breeds. To be eligible to the Holstein registry a cow, calving on or before the day she is two years old, must make a record of not less than 7.2 pounds of butterfat in seven consecutive days. This is the equivalent of about 8 pounds of butter per week. For every day that the cow exceeds two years of age at date of calving the requirements for butter fat record are increased .00439 of a pound. This rate holds until she is five years of age when she must produce not less than 12 pounds of butter fat in seven consecutive days. Rules for the other breeds vary in the amount of butterfat required but the principle is the same in all. The value of the test is so generally acknowledged that capable dairymen will not purchase a pure bred, unless official tests have been made on his ancestors.

State Press Comments.

Don't it make you tired to receive a large bulky letter sent you in a franked envelope and with the time worn prefix "Honorable" tacked onto your name? Then from curiously more than anything else you carelessly peruse a page or two of the manuscript to find that some Congressman or other official has suddenly taken an interest in you—just because election time is drawing near. Ziz bang, goes the lid to the waste basket.—Coos Bay Harbor.

Neighborhood Gossip.

The Lockhart hotel in Empire City, a landmark of pioneer days, is being torn down. It was recently purchased by Wm. Saunders, who secured H. Ingersoll to raise the building. Much of the lumber is as sound as when it entered the structure in the early '70s and the workmen find it a difficult undertaking to remove it.—Marshfield Sun.

Vernon Barker, formerly of this city, is in serious trouble at Eureka, California, being charged with violating the white slave law. Barker was once a successful logger of the Upper Coquille, and a man of good repute and excellent reputation.—Marshfield Sun.

John D. Goss, who came home today from Salem, says the Southern Pacific will put on a full force of men along the Willamette Pacific within thirty days.—Marshfield Record.

The stockholders of the Bank of Myrtle Point held an election of officers Wednesday. J. R. Benson was elected president. C. C. Carter vice-president, and R. Morris, John Carl and George Shelly, directors. Ed Rackleff resigned as cashier of bank and R. A. Annan was elected to take his place.

A. D. Loud, formerly of Mapleton and Eugene, and at one time reporter of U. S. Federal Court in Minnesota, has wired Judge Coke his acceptance of the appointment as reporter in the Coos and Curry county courts.—Coquille Sentinel.

Frederick Hollister, of North Bend a lawyer and banker, is out for the Democratic nomination to congress from the first district.

James J. Corbett at Grand.

"The Man From the Golden West," a four reel feature drama by the Warner's Feature Film Co. presents Gentleman Jim Corbett in the leading role. This is the first time that Corbett has ever posed before the camera and he has proven himself as skillful an actor as he was a fighter. This picture is a typical story of the wild and woolly west in early days and contains many sensational and thrilling climaxes. A feature that is different and will prove entertaining to every photo play fan. At the Grand next Saturday, Feb. 14.
