The Tualum Lumber Co., that operates saw mills and lumber yards in Oregon and Washington, will open a branch at Umatilla.

Milton will have a two-story machine shop as soon as a suitable brick building can be erected.

The initiative and referendum against a franchise for the new Carver electric line from Portland to Oregon City is to be recalled.

Gus. Schlagel will erect an ice factory and cold storage plant at Lakeview, the first in the county.

Tremendous public interest centers in the decision that is expected from the Supreme court in the test case of the minimum wage law.

L. R. Fields is succeeded as superintendent of the Southern Pacific by Frank L. Burkholder, for some time district engineer.

The tests of Coos Bay paper pulp made from saw mill waste are pronounced to be very satisfactory by the Oregon City paper mills.

The Portland, Eugene & Eastern, S. P. interurban electric system, has put out its first official timecard, with L. R. Fields superintendent.

The machinery for the new Booth-Kelley Lumber Co., sawmill at Springfield is arriving and being installed.

Work has begun on the new Hunt Brothers cannery plant at Salem, to be one of the largest in the northwest and to employ 300 hands.

The date has been set for the Marion county good roads bond election for May 15th, the date of the regular primaries.

To the Democratic Voters.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Judge of Coos County, Oregon, on the Democratic ticket for the coming primary election. I favor permanent highways and the development of the wonderful wealth of Coos County consistent with economical and judicious expenditure of the taxpayers' money.
