READ WHAT THE LARGEST MILK FARMS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA HAVE TO SAY REGARDING THIS WONDERFUL STOCK FEED.

"It might be of interest to know the result of feeding LARROW'S MOLASSES DRIED BEET PULP, at our dairy. We are milking 167 cows and are feeding 1200 pounds of pulp per day; about 7 pounds to the animal. The pulp is fed in addition to a grain ration of about 5 pounds per animal with all the alfalfa hay they will eat. As above stated the grain and hay is our regular ration, and the beet pulp increased our milk yield 500 pounds per day. The increase was during the stormiest and most uncomfortable weather we had this winter. While we were getting these results from our method of feeding beet pulp, our supply of pulp was exhausted, and for several days we were unable to get any more on account of the railroads being washed out. Our milk output almost immediately fell off 500 pounds per day, thus furnishing absolute proof that the pulp is to be given the credit of our unusual yield of milk, which has again attained the maximum since we obtained a fresh supply of pulp.

We unhesitatingly recommend beet pulp to any and all dairymen who feed for results.

DIXON CERTIFIED MILK FARM.

ARE YOU one of the dairymen "WHO FEED FOR RESULTS" or are you satisfied with merely paying out money regardless of the return you receive on the same? A few pounds a day of LARROW'S MOLASSES DRIED BEET PULP per day to the cow, is the best investment you ever made. Try it and be convinced.

THE OTHER DAY WE TALKED A MAN INTO TRYING THIS PULP. He was from Missouri, but said he would try anything once. He bought one sack for his cow. He was in our office lately, and this is his story: "When I purchased the BEET PULP from you, my cow was running dry. Within three weeks, due to no other agency than the LARROW BEET PULP, the cow was giving two gallons a day, whereas when I started to feed the PULP she was giving but 1/2 gallon a day. Furthermore she is still gaining at the rate of 1 pint a day. BEET PULP for me every time now. I am glad you brought it to my attention."

Whether you have one cow or twenty, it is a MONEY MAKING PROPOSITION for you to feed PULP. Try one sack and see if we are not correct in our assertion. We have not yet had anyone say that it did NOT pay

DRYS TO RALLY

MANY SPEAKERS OF NOTE WILL ASSIST IN FIGHT FOR PROHIBITION.

Westerville, Ohio, March 19.—The Anti-Saloon League of America, whose headquarters and general publishing house is in this city, has determined to throw the whole power of its organization to the assistance of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon and the other organizations co-operating with it for a dry Oregon this year.

At the recent national convention of the league held at Columbus, O., that body was completely reorganized. Prior to that, the national body was a loose federation of state Leagues without much control over local organizations. The reorganized body is a compact machine in which all of the state organizations become departments of the national organization. This organization becomes effective on June 1. The country is divided into sixteen districts, at the head of each of which is a representative and member of the national board of trustees. The member of the national board from the far Northwest is Hon. Fletcher Holman of Salem, Oregon.

The heads of the Oregon state department of the League are Rev. J. H. Bennett, president, and Hon. H. L. Sheldon, superintendent. The offices of the state are located in the Stock Exchange building, Portland, Oregon.

The second week in April, the advance guard of the national spellbinders will enter the state and conduct the preliminary series of rallies. The preliminary campaign will be opened by the strongest speakers at the command of the national organization. There are several ex-governors and orators of international fame. Among them are such men as Hon. Malcolm R. Patterson, ex-governor of Tennessee, ex-congressman and one of the foremost orators of the entire south. Twice was Mr. Patterson elected governor of his own state and, until some months ago, he was the strongest advocate of the licensed saloon in America. He vetoed Prohibition bills that had passed the Tennessee legislature pardoned convicted liquor dealers by the wholesale and spoke on the platform in defence of the trade. Some months ago he was converted and joined the Presbyterian church in his home city of Memphis. Shortly afterwards he reversed his position on the liquor question and has since fought for Prohibition of the liquor traffic with greater fury than he formerly supported it.

Ex-Governor Robert B. Glenn of North Carolina is another of the "governors" who will speak in behalf of a dry Oregon. Hon. John G. Wooley, at one time candidate for president on the Prohibition ticket, will be another of the "big guns" that will take part in the Oregon fight. Others who will come to Oregon and California, League leaders the national organization are Rev. Dr. Purley A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League; Rev. George W. Morrow of Michigan; Rev. Sam Small of Georgia; Ernest H. Cherrington, general manager of the publishing interests of the Anti-Saloon League of America; Dr. Howard H. Russell, founder of the original Anti-Saloon organization; Rev. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent of the League, Washington, D. C.; William E. Johnson, formerly chief officer of the United States Indian Service, now editor of the New Republic and managing editor of thirty odd periodicals of the League; and the famous baritone singer, A. M. Thatcher of Chicago. Because of the importance of carrying such states as Washington, Oregon and California, League leaders will use every effort to make these states dry. They declare the whole country west of the Mississippi river is ripe for Prohibition. The opening of the Panama canal, with the prospect of great increase of foreign population, makes it imperative, in the minds of League men, to vote the West dry now. The second week in April, the advance squad of national orators will strike Oregon, and for a week the liquor interests will be chastised in as vigorous English as the dictionary has words for. Ex-Governor Patterson and Dr. Purley A. Baker will begin their speaking tour at Ashland April 9. Their other dates are: April 10, Eugene; April 12, Portland; April 13, Oregon City; April 14, Astoria. Hon. John C. Wooley and George W. Morrow speak at but three places: April 9, Corvallis; April 10, Grants Pass; April 11 at some point yet undetermined. Dr. Howard H. Russell, founder of the League, accompanied by Prof. Thatcher, will speak at St. Johns, April 8, Albany, April 9; Roseburg, April 10; and at some point on April 11th. Rev. Sam Small, the famous evangelist, enters the state with a series of dates beginning at Baker City on April 8 and ending at Medford, April 21st. An elaborate literature campaign is being planned on the part of the national organization. It is expected that headquarters will be opened probably at Portland or Seattle. The details of this are not finally determined. The present plan is that the literature campaign will be managed by William E. Johnson, who acquired the sobriquet of "Pussyfoot" during his five years service as chief of the United States Indian Service for the suppression of the liquor traffic among the Indians, and who is well known in the Indian sections of the Northwest.

The theory of this sort of thing is that when any state is engaged in a contest for statewide prohibition, all of the other states, acting through the national organization, come to the rescue and focus the energies of the temperance forces of the nation upon the particular state in question.

PETITIONERS WOULD OUST SALOONS AT COQUILLE

A paper in the form of an ordinance, but signed like a petition by 151 names, prohibiting the sale of liquor in Coquille, was handed in to the Recorder and was read to the Council at the last meeting. J. E. Quick acted as sponsor for the paper and explained that it was submitted to the council to be acted on by that body as it thought best. It was explained that it was too late to submit the measure as an initiative law at the coming election, and the sentiment of the council was that as the town had voted wet, and as the council was supposed to carry out the wishes of the majority, the time was not ripe for a dry ordinance, until the voters should indicate a change of sentiment.—Coquille Herald.
