MANY OUT FOR OFFICE

INTEREST CENTERS ON GOVERNORSHIP, WITH THIRTEEN AFTER THE JOB.

Salem, Or., March 26.—Practically the complete lineup of candidates for all state officers is now known by the filings of declarations in the office of Secretary of State Olcott. As all completed nomination petitions must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than April 10th, less than three weeks away, it is believed that not more than one or two more candidates will get into the scramble for state positions.

Interest centers in the fight for the gubernatorial nominations, and as the list now stands it appears that the fate of a number of candidates next May 15th, the day when the voter has his say about this election business, will be charged up to that "hoodoo" number "13." Just 13 candidates have filed declarations that they are willing to take the job of running the state as the chief executive ought to run it; and each, in the space of 100 words, has told how he intends to do it.

As there is room for only three nominations, one Republican, one Democrat and one Progressive, something is going to happen to ten of these ambitious men which is likely to be laid to the door of poor little number "13." More candidates are in the field for the principal office than ever before. Of the thirteen candidates for governor, eight are seeking the Republican nomination, four the Democratic and one the Progressive. The next largest number of candidates for 1 office is in the third congressional district, comprised of Multnomah county, where three Republicans, counting A. W. Lafferty, the present congressman from that district, two Progressives and one Democrat are out after nominations. The office of Attorney General, which has been occupied by A. M. Crawford for the last 11 years, has attracted four Republicans and one Democrat.

The complete list of candidates who have filed for state offices and who will be voted on in Coos county are as follows:

United States Senator—R. A. Booth, Eugene, Republican; George E. Chamberlain, Portland, Democratic.

Representative in Congress, First district—B. F. Jones, Roseburg, Republican; W. C. Hawley, Salem, Republican; John Osterman, Taft, Democratic; Frederick Hollister, North Bend, Democratic; W. H. Meredith, Wedderburn, Democratic.

Governor—Grant B. Dimick, Oregon City, Republican; A. M. Crawford, Roseburg, Republican; William A. Carter, Portland, Republican; T. T. Geer, Portland, Republican; James Withcombe, Corvallis, Republican; Charles A. Johns, Portland, Republican; Gus C. Moser, Portland, Republican; George C. Brownell, Oregon City, Republican; John Manning, Portland, Democratic; C. J. Smith, Portland, Democratic; A. S. Bennett, The Dalles, Democratic; F. M. Gill, Dufur, Progressive; Robert A. Miller, Portland, Democratic.

State Treasurer—Thomas B. Kay, Salem, Republican; Tom Kay, Portland, Republican.

Justices of the Supreme Court—Henry L. Benson, Klamath Falls, Republican; Charles L. McNary, Salem, Republican; Thomas A. McBride, Salem, Republican; Henry J. Bean, Pendleton, Republican; Lawrence T. Harris, Eugene, Republican; Samuel T. Richardson, Salem, Republican; T. J. Cleeton, Portland, Republican; P. H. D'Arcy, Salem, Republican; William M. Ramsey, McMinnville, Democratic; William Galloway, Salem, Democratic.

Attorney General—Frank S. Grant, Portland, Republican; George N. Farrin, Portland, Republican; J. J. Johnson, Portland, Republican; George M. Brown, Roseburg, Republican; John A. Jeffrey, Portland, Democratic.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—J. A. Churchill, Baker, Republican.

State Engineer—John H. Lewis, Salem, Republican; L. R. Stockman, Baker, Republican.

Commissioner of Labor—O. P. Hoff, Portland, Republican; J. A. Madsen, Portland, Republican.

Commissioner of railroad—Frank J. Miller, Albany, Republican; Hal D. Patton, Salem, Republican.

Representative 6th District—E. J. Loney, Port Orford, Republican.
