BANKED ALL HIS MONEY.

the middle west states had sold some hogs on the local market and upon receiving his check in payment im-mediately went to the local bank to realize on his sale. Upon presentment of the check the banker said to him, "Do you wish the money on this

"You really want the money?"
"Yah, I tank I take the mon-e."

asked the banker.

"Well." said the banker, "if you really want the money of course I will give it to you, but I thought if you did not need it perhaps you might open an account and deposit the money and then check against it as you needed

This seemed assuring to the Swede, and he said, "Vell, if you pays my shecks, den I open de account." And the account was opened and passbook and check book handed to the new the new depositor appeared at the cashier's window and presented a check signed by his friend for the full amount of the deposit, which was promptly paid by the banker without

In about an hour the Swede appeared and, walking up to the cashler's window, banded the banker his check book minus only one check, with the remark. "Vell, I don't tank I needs him any more."

A New Jersey teacher who had been greatly annoyed by revelry in the hotel where she had spent part of one vacation took the precaution next time, in writing to another hotel which had been recommended to her, to inquire whether it had a bar. She received the following reply:

"No, we haven't any bar, and if that is the sort of woman you are we don't want you. The place for you is at Yardley's, farther up the road."-New York Post.

It Followed Him.

Little Harry wanted a dog. He had many arguments with his mother on the subject. He was sent to a nearby grocery. He was gone so long that his mother became anxious. Stepping street manfully pulling on a rope, the other end of which was tied around the neck of a small dog. The pup was resisting every step. Braced on all fours, it was pulling back with every ounce of its small might and barking tered the room. "Mother." he called, "won't you let me keep this little dog? It followed me home."-Judge.

Disappointment. Disappointment will make us conversant with the noble part of our nature. It will chasten us and prepare us to meet accident on higher ground the next time.

Brabms was always credited with frugal mind, and the following tale is related of him, the late Erich Wolff and a cigarette: The cigarette had been offered by the former to the latter, who received it with emotion and placed it carefully in his waistcoat pocket. "Why do you put the elgarette away? Why not light it now?" asked Brahus, who had already struck a match. "I cannot smoke it." replied Wolff. "I shall take great care of it. It is not every day that one gets a cigarette from Johann Brahme." Thermpon the great men opened his cigarette case again and said with a emite of satteod charette will you?
