Industrial Review

Items of Interest Concerning The Doings of the Entire State

Salem, Ore., May 4.—During the past week two decisions have been rendered affecting industries. A federal court at Portland upheld the Oregon Blue Sky law, and the Supreme Court upheld the second suit brought by a working girl against the Minimum Wage law. Both will now be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States.

It is proposed to use the wire grass that grows on Youngs Bay near Astoria for the manufacture of paper. This week the manufacturers of Lane county will hold an exhibit of their products to encourage home industries.

dustries. The Dalles has bought 140 acres on the river front to give free sites for factories. The Supreme court has upheld the $200,000 bond issue of Grants Pass for the purpose of building a section of railroad to the coast. To relieve the unemployed, a bill has been initiated to tax all estates of $50,000 or over ten per cent for a fund to be expended by a department of public works. A special vessel has been chartered to carry 48 great Oregon logs to the Panama Exposition for columns for the Oregon building. The Toledo co-operative creamery is now in operation. The Oregon Railroad Commissioner is examining the books and the accounts of about fifty public utility corporations to ascertain their physical value and earnings. Malheur county Pomona grant went on record as opposed to taxing mortgages, as tending to raise interest and keep capital out of Oregon. Astoria has appointed an industrial commissioner to promote factories in the person of O. W. Taylor. Molalla raised a bonus of $2,000 for a pottery plant that is being erected and will soon be in operation. A factory for the manufacture of lead pipe has been established at Portland, capable of making five thousand miles a day. Gresham fruit growers are moving to establish a cannery. It was stated at the Portland Rotary Club that anyone with a fair reputation and a good pair of lungs could put over most any kind of freak measure in Oregon. J. E. Tourtellotte, a Portland architect, submitted a plan for using fireproofed wood building material for school houses at a saving of nearly fifty per cent over brick or stone. Astoria has asked bids for the first unit of public docks to unite rail and water transportation. Mayor Simpson of North Bend has conducted an exhaustive investigation to ascertain the best paving material, and decides in favor of vitrified brick or bitulitic. North Powder has passed an ordinance to construct a gravity water system. Cottage Grove is erecting a cannery to cost $6,000. The Clearwater Lumber Co., of Portland is clearing the site for the erection of a big mill. The Portland Timberman has issued a bulletin announcing that by its efforts it has secured a reduction on lumber rates to fifty eastern cities. The farmers around Burns have let the contract for erection of a co-operative meat packing plant. The J. K. Armsby Fruit Co., is establishing a packing house at Roseburg. The De Luse Mining and Dredging Co., has bought a large orchard at Gold Hill and will work the ground for placer gold. The Presbyterian church of Eugene will be rebuilt of pressed brick—Oregon made.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The merchants of Bandon have agreed to close their places of business at 6 p. m. except Saturday, in order that their employees may enjoy a little recreation, which they are justly entitled to, and will be the better able to serve your wants during the day. With this object in view, the public is asked to co-operate with them by making their purchases before 6 p. m., which will be greatly appreciated.

To the Democratic Voters. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for County Judge of Coos County, Oregon, on the Democratic ticket for the coming primary election. I favor permanent highways and the development of the wonderful wealth of Coos County consistent with economical and judicious expenditure of the taxpayers' money. J. J. STANLEY, 166f. Coquille, Oregon

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos.

N. Elizabeth Monroe, Plaintiff, vs. Charles O. Monroe, Defendant.

To Charles O. Monroe, the above named defendant:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within six weeks from the 17th day of April, 1914, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 29th of May, 1914, that date being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief asked for in the complaint filed in this cause, a succinct statement of which is: a decree for absolute divorce, giving the custody of minor child to plaintiff, and for an order directing defendant to pay to the Clerk of the Court for Plaintiff's use in the maintenance and education of said child, the sum of $25 per month during the minority of such child, costs and disbursements, and such further relief as the Court deem proper to grant.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable John F. Hall, judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos said order being dated April 16th, 1914.

C. R. WADE, Plaintiff's Attorney. 32-76f.
