J. E. Walstrom is now grading his lawn, having completed the building of sidewalks, driveway, etc., and when his lawn is completed he will have one of the finest homes in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Treadgold are the proud parents of a fine nine pound baby boy, born Wednesday night, May 27th. "Tread" is the happiest man in town and is "setting 'em up" to his friends.

Miss Jessie Sweet, chief clerk in the Bandon postoffice will leave on the Allacene for Eureka, Calif., Sunday, where she will take a month's vacation. Miss Elsie Wolf will be in the postoffice while Miss Sweet is away.

Mrs. E. J. Loney, who underwent an operation at the Emergency hospital several weeks ago and has since been here regaining her health, has returned to her home in Port Orford. Mr. Loney came up and accompanied her home.

C. H. Donaca, an old time resident of this city and who has been living on the Rogue River for some time, returned to Bandon this week. Mr. Donaca was accompanied by his son, Richard, and family, who expect to locate here.

The Coos Bay Times says: "Mrs. E. Carey, of Empire, was quite badly burned by the explosion of a can of oil. One of the children placed a can of oil on the stove and later Mrs. Carey made a fire, not knowing the oil can was there. The heat caused the explosion, which set fire to her clothing, burned her hair and caused painful but not serious injuries." Mrs. Carey is well known in Bandon, having moved from here to Empire only a short time ago.

A clerical error has hindered the working of the city charter of Coquille, and it was so plainly visible that it was believed that the people would amend the charter without question and at the first opportunity. However at the city election last week 227 votes were cast to amend while 88 were cast to let the error stand. Truly spoked the patriarch when he said there are those who may be found for and against any proposition.—North Bend Harbor.

Mrs. James Cowan, Sr., was hostess at a delightful afternoon at sewing Wednesday complimentary to her sister, Mrs. C. R. Wade of Bandon, who has been her guest. Needlework was followed by refreshments. Those present were Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. J. A. Blatt, Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Mrs. Rolanston, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Jr., Miss Evelyn Anderson, Mrs. E. D. McArthur, Mrs. Falkenstein and Mrs. F. H. Storey.—Marshfield Record.

A reception to new members was given at the M. E. Church South Tuesday evening and the large crowd present had a very enjoyable time. It was a "get acquainted" meeting, interspersed with music and innocent games. Ice cream and cake were served. About fifty members have been received so far this year and more are expected to follow soon. The regular services will be readjusted after the long revival meeting. A cordial invitation is given to the public to attend all services.—W. B. Smith, pastor.
