

The Grand Theatre

JULY 4TH SPECIAL

"The Big African Hunt"

in five spectacular parts. Elephants, hippos, alligators, lions, leopards, monkeys—in fact all wild animal life in Darkest Africa fall before the rifle. Intensely interesting throughout. Don't miss it, and bring the children. Six reel show including a cracker-jack comedy.

Admission 20c and 10c.

Sunday Night—"THE GREAT LEAP"

A wonderful Biograph feature of a Kentucky Fued. See the horse and rider leaping over a 50-foot cliff into the river below. It's surely wonderful. See it. 5000 Feet—Sunday—15c and 10c

"Zu Zu, the Band Leader" tonight, Friday, at the Grand.

F. D. Haskins of Coquille was in Bandon Wednesday.

G. F. Hulbert of Sixes River was in this city Wednesday.

W. S. Glover of Marshfield was a Bandon visitor Wednesday.

O. W. Magill of Myrtle Point was a Bandon visitor Wednesday.

J. P. Tupper was down from Coquille on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rodes of Coledo were Bandon visitors yesterday.

C. E. Robey of Coquille was transacting business in Bandon Wednesday.

W. L. Davidson left today for Langlois where he will visit his brother.

Don't miss that big African Hunt sensation at the Grand in five reels, July 4th.

Mrs. T. H. Mehl and Mrs. J. C. Slagle are guests of Marshfield friends for a few days.

For Rent—Five furnished house-keeping rooms on first floor. Inquire of Mrs. E. Lee.—51tf.

Read the big ad. of the Bandon Dry Goods Co. on another page of today's Recorder. It has something of interest for you.

Gerard Brandenburg arrived last Saturday from San Francisco for a visit with his brother, L. L. Brandenburg. He is now down on the Sixes River on a little camping expedition.

A fire alarm was turned in yesterday, the fire being at Brown & Gibson's planing mill. Fortunately it was extinguished before any material damage was done, farther than burning a hole in the roof.

Contractor F. F. Patterson leaves for Bandon tomorrow morning where he will figure on the construction of several buildings which it is proposed to build there during the summer.—Roseburg Review.

Carpenter & Son have moved their racket store into the new Thrift building, next door to the bakery. They have recently put in a large amount of new goods, and now have about double the room they formerly had in the Oakes building.

The Coos Bay Times says: "R. A. Copple will leave the first of next week on a six week's eastern buying tour. He will go to New York and stop at various cities enroute." Mr. Copple is proprietor of the Golden Rule stores in Bandon and Marshfield.

Richard Stubbs and family and Mrs. L. L. Lewis will leave here this week for a two weeks' trip. They will first go to Gardiner and Winchester Bay, where they will spend a few days. They will later proceed to Bandon, Marshfield, Myrtle Point and other coast cities. They will make the trip in Mr. Stubbs' automobile.—Roseburg Review.

C. C. Inman, Jr., was up from Sixes River mine yesterday looking after business affairs.

A singular feature of the new city council is the fact that Bandon's only two ex-mayors are both members of the council. Steve Gallier the first mayor is a councilman from the West ward, and J. W. Mast, the retiring mayor is a councilman from the East ward. The former experiences of these two gentlemen will be a great help in the work of the new administration.

Mrs. Nettie Waters of San Diego, Calif., who has been in Chicago for the past two months, stopped off in Bandon on her return home and visited a day with her daughter, Mrs. Ira Zeh.

Miss Nelson, a young girl about 16 years old, attempted to end her life yesterday by taking a dose of laudanum. Dr. Houston was called immediately and rendered aid and the young girl is getting along all right now.

Meetings have been in progress during the past week at the M. E. Church. Rev. Bryan of Coquille has been doing the preaching. The meetings will close Sunday morning and in the evening there will be no services as all will go to the Presbyterian Church to hear Rev. Hartranft's farewell sermon.

Two masked men held up three autos Saturday night on the Empire road, in the green timber this side of the cemetery. As near as Marshal Carter could figure out, the bandits got away with about $200 besides a lot of jewelry. Sheriff Gage arrived Sunday, and with deputies scoured the country in the vicinity of the scene of the robbery and also had watchmen on stage roads and trails, but up to this writing the guilty parties are still at large.—Coos Bay News.
