NEW HOTEL IS SURE GO

MAJORITY OF STOCK SUBSCRIBED YESTERDAY AND MANY OTHERS HAVE SUBSCRIBED THEIR INTENTION TO DO SO.

There is no longer any doubt that the new hotel will be built, as the subscription begun their work of raising stock subscriptions yesterday morning and a large number of the stock of the hotel has already been sold, more than 400 persons having signed their intention to subscribe.

The stock subscription will be continued in a short time, and the matter will be considered as a fait accompli.

A building with 20 rooms or more, and possibly much larger, will be constructed. This will be the building of the most modern type.

The name of the hotel has not yet been decided, but it is expected to be something elegant.

The proprietors have made arrangements with various firms for the furnishing of the hotel.

J. R. Graves, head of the department of Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis, is in Coos county this week, stimulating growers all over the state.

Prof. Graves, in company with County Agricultural Agent, Mr. Charles H. Moore, and Mr. Coquille, who will conduct this tour, will make one or more visits to every county in the state.

A large circle of friends will visit and the hotel, a long and lovely wedding.
