

My Policy

Is to deal with patrons in a way that will cause them to come again. I'm here to stay and making friends is the surest way to build up a good business. I solicit your trade on a basis of honest goods and real service.

J. A. BYRNE

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mayor Geo. P. Topping and family left Sunday morning in their car for the Willamette Valley, and while gone will visit friends at Ashland and other points. Mr. Topping will also go to Salem this week, where he has a case before the Supreme court.

For Sale—Fine celery plants. Inquire of Melvin Baker on Jackson Avenue, the Boyle property.

H. J. Vaughn of Coos Bay was in this city yesterday.

A. R. McIntyre was over from Coos Bay yesterday looking after business affairs.

Dr. H. M. Shaw of Marshfield, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be in Bandon at the Hotel Gallier on the arrival of the morning boat from Coquille Wednesday, July 29th. Glasses fitted.—5314

Steve and E. M. Gallier and Geo. P. Laird went out to the West Shore Oil Co.'s well today. The prospect for a good flow of oil is getting better every day and everybody connected with the company is very sanguine of the outcome.

E. E. Oakes and family went down to Elk River Sunday and camped until Monday, returning home yesterday afternoon. They report a very pleasant trip.

Wanted party to contract to cut a couple of thousand tiers of wood with drag saw. Inquire at this office.—1f.

J. S. Lyons and family of Marshfield, Dr. C. W. Endicott and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Furman of Coquille came down Saturday night and visited over Sunday at the Dr. Endicott and C. McC. Johnson homes. The entire party and Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Wells took an outing on Johnson's Beach Sunday.

For Sale—Full blooded black Minorca hens. Inquire at Shannon House on old plank road.

Attorney G. T. Treadgold left last night for Salem, where he has a case in the Supreme court this week.

C. R. Moore left on the Bandon for a combined business and pleasure trip to San Francisco.

J. T. Conlogue was down from Conlogue's camp Saturday transacting business.

Geo. King and John Hayes of Coos Bay were in Bandon yesterday looking after business affairs.

Wm. Goodrum drove over from Marshfield in one of the famous Goodrum Fords.

W. M. Russell and J. C. Thorhaven of Langlois were in the city on business yesterday.

E. E. Reynolds, H. E. Boak, Guy Dippel, Fred Tuttle, H. K. Flom and H. A. Murphy left this afternoon for a few days' fishing trip on Elk River. They were driven down by Clay Garoutte in the big Glide.

L. I. Wheeler was taken to the Emergency hospital Friday with every symptom of pneumonia, but the physician and hospital attendants were successful in breaking the fever, and Mr. Wheeler is able to be about again.

Melvin and Misses Nora and Esther Solve have moved into the little bungalow, owned by Halden Foss, and recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Nichols.

Sam Johnson and family went down to the Sixes River and camped over Sunday. Sam reports a fine time and says they caught lots of fish.

A card from E. B. Henry, who is taking W. J. Sweet and family down the coast in his car, stated that they reached Crescent City without any trouble, and were continuing their journey in safety. The roads are quite good in that section.

H. Burkholder was down from Coquille on business yesterday.

P. H. Poole came up from Port Orford Sunday returning to that place today. He is advertising the Port Orford Agate Carnival, which will be held August 6, 7, and 8.

Editor Young of the Coquille Sentinel, and wife, were in Bandon Saturday taking in the sights in the Bandon beach.

The Grand Theatre was packed to its capacity Saturday night and Mr. Sellmer had an extra good lot of pictures on the screen. The drama, "Through Fire to Fortune" was one of the best pictures ever shown here.

"Perils of Pauline" at the Grand Tuesday, July 21. 6000 feet, a two hour show.

Miss Belat, who has been teaching in the Bandon High School for the past year, was the guest of her friend, Miss Marjorie Cowan, this week. After her year's work, Miss Belat made a vacation trip down the coast to Crescent City and left Marshfield Thursday enroute to her home at The Dalles, where she will spend the remainder of her vacation.—Coos Bay Times.

M. D. Sherrard has sold the machine shop in connection with his garage, and it is now being operated by P. F. Beulieu. Mr. Sherrard still retains his garage and store and continues as agent for the Buick car.

Coming—"Judith of Bithulia" Biograph's supreme masterpiece. It's a greater picture than the last days of Pompeii. At the Grand Theatre next Saturday night, July 25th.

The following party was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cox of Floras Creek Wednesday, the 9th: Mrs. Rosa and daughter, Kate, Mrs. E. Gallier, Mrs. S. Gallier, Mrs. W. Crain, Mrs. N. Mehl, J. Mast and I. J. Sidwell.—Langlois Leader.

"Lucille Love, the Girl of Mystery" at the Grand Wednesday July 22nd.

Notice to School Pupils.

A meeting of the Seaside Industrial Club, of which the following are officers, is called for Friday, August 7th, at 2:30, at the old school house. All who are planning exhibits for the fair should be present.

Melford Westleder, Pres.
Wilbur Jurgenson, Vice Pres
Very Hunnicutt, Sec'y.
Emily Schetter, Treas.

Yesterday a lady friend of the Bandon Public Library, who desired her name withheld, donated $5.00 with which to buy new books that are needed at the library.

The Rebekah lodge will install officers tonight, a special meeting being held for that purpose.

LOST.

Either on Fourth Street or Oregon Avenue, going south, a gold breast-pin, with gold cross attached. Valued as a keep-sake. Finder please return same to Mrs. Beyerle or this office and receive reward.

Rubies

should be always worn by those born in July. We carry a full assortment of these stones in stock with mountings to fit or have them set in your own jewelry.

$2.50 per carat and up

Boyle Jewelry Co.

Everard H. Boyle, Mgr. Diamond Setters
Phone 514

Automobile and Machine Work

Bring your work to the Garage and Machine Shop. Everything done with neatness and dispatch. Agent for Buick Automobiles.

M. D. SHERRARD, Bandon, Ore.

New Fall Stuff

THE AMERICAN WOOLEN MILLS

Just received their new fall suitings. Come in and look them over. You will be surprised at our low prices on this beautiful fall line. There is only a few days left of our offer of giving away free trousers. Don't delay taking advantage of this opportunity.

4 doors east of the telephone office

Readers of the Bandon Recorder, and Friends:

Special Bargains in Farm Lands and City Property

See SQUARE DEAL REALTY CO.

RECORDER JOB PRINTING

Remember Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Wednesday, July 22nd will be positively the last day of our big fire sale. If you want dependable merchandise at a greatly reduced figure, now is your last chance. So don't forget the sale ends tomorrow.

BANDON DRY GOODS CO.