MORE ABOUT MAIL SERVICE

CONGRESSIONAL BILL WOULD SUBSIDIZE CORRECTIONS IN BANDON TO COOS COUNTY MAIL ROUTE.

The Recorder is in receipt of the following correspondence from居

R. C. Reynolds, librarian of the Coos County public library, and it is published so our readers may know just how interminable the post office is.

The Coos County post office is situated on a hill, and it is necessary for the mail carriers to climb and descend the hill at least 50 times each week, in order to reach the various customers who reside in the vicinity. The mail carriers are paid a meager salary, and they are often required to work long hours in order to complete their duties. The post office is congested with letters and packages, and it is becoming increasingly difficult for the carriers to deliver the mail in a timely manner. The situation is causing considerable inconvenience to the people of the area, and it is hoped that Congress will take action to remedy the situation.
