BUILDING ACTIVITY.

Anyone who has the idea that conditions in Bandon are dull, should take a look around and see what is really going on. Even though conditions may seem quiet the fact remains that there is lots of building going on.

In the business district no less than half a dozen buildings are in course of construction at present.

The building to be occupied by the Bandon Hardware Co. is being pushed to completion and will be one of the largest store rooms in the city when it is finished. Then there is the big warehouse building between the present Central warehouse and the Bandon creamery. This building alone would make people in many places think there was really "something doing." The new Thrift building, to be occupied by the post office, is another one that is worthy of mention.

Then there is the building for F. T. Tuttle's news stand, and M. O'Connor will start a new building on the Timmons corner in a very few days.

The big Ellingson building which is pointed to with pride, by all public spirited citizens, is now nearly completed, and tenants are already moving in.

In addition to all this, the new hotel building is now an assured fact and the new buildings to take the place of those burned out by the recent fire are sure to start in a short time.

Taking all this into consideration there is no cause to feel down cast over the situation, for the fact is, that conditions were never more promising than they are right now. Everybody should get in and boost and thus help the good work along.

COQUILLE NEWS

From the Herald:

Baxter Bros. have purchased the Eagle saloon at Marshfield and will remove their base of operations to that place. They have dismantled their saloon here and stored the fixtures. This leaves E. A. Becket holding the fort as the sole representative of the liquor interests here.

A change took place in the ownership of the Coquille Garage last week. C. A. Sickles bought out his partner S. L. Ball, who has been associated with him for some time. O. F. Smith who was formerly engaged in photography and axiderny here, has bought an interest with Mr. Sickles, and the business will be conducted as heretofore.

J. W. Perkins of Roseburg and E. M. Andrews of Medford, who are in the county in the interests of railroad and oil development, were in the city yesterday in consultation with some of the business men.

Robert Blalock, who lives on the Snow place east of town, was brought in Saturday morning suffering from injuries received when his team ran away. The wagon ran over him and he was severely bruised about the head, shoulders and wrist, but no bones were broken. His injuries were attended to by Dr. Richmond and he was taken back to his home, where he will be laid up for some time.

On Saturday Judge Hall visited the poor farm to oversee the plans for some contemplated improvements in the water system there. A new source of supply will be found on higher ground and a reservoir will be put in and the water piped to the buildings under a pressure that will add to the usefulness of the system and will furnish more adequate fire protection.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherwood and two young daughters with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and daughter will spend two or three weeks in an outing in Curry county. They will camp on the Clark and Dyer ranch on the headwaters of Florida creek which is said to be in the midst of a fish and game paradise, and we may expect some tall stories when they get back—from the legal lights of the party.

Mrs. Mary Nosler has secured a new pet and has him securely incarcerated in a glass jar. It is a beautiful brown hairy tarantula, about two inches from tip to tip. He undoubtedly arrived in a bunch of bananas, and Mrs. Nosler found him wandering around on the floor of her sewing room looking for a warm place.

MARSHFIELD NEWS

J. C. Jones, who is home from his outing at Tenmile, brought back the report that the creamery there was compelled to throw away 800 pounds of milk as the result of a small skunk getting drowned in a can of milk brought to the creamery and which was not discovered until the can was dumped into the large vat with the other milk and all was spoiled.—Times.

A house is being erected near Eighth and Ingersoll for Mrs. C. H. McLaughlin and family by kind-hearted people who subscribed several hundred dollars for the purpose. The house will be a small one but adequate for the family now.—Times.

Two diamond rings, a couple of ladies' gold watches, some other jewelry, some silverware and about $5.90 in change, which was stolen from the Schroeder home in West Marshfield a few weeks ago, was found yesterday in the brush in the alley in the rear of their house. It was all wrapped up in a bundle and was but a short distance from where the tin box, from which most of it had been taken, was found a day after the robbery.—Times.

Alex Nygard, a mill man who was returning to Bunker Hill Saturday night shortly after 12 o'clock, was held up and robbed on the railroad draw bridge by two masked men who pointed a gun in his face and ordered him to stand and deliver. The men had handkerchiefs on their faces, but they only got two dollars from Nygard and a watch. The robberies are becoming so frequent here a determined effort will be made to apprehend the ones who are doing the work, and it is more than probable the next highwaymen who attempt a hold-up on this bridge will be caught.—Record.

It was reported here today that Jack McDonald of the McDonald & Vaughn Company, and one of the best known men in the county would be an independent candidate for county commissioner this fall.—Times.

The salmon run is starting in Coos Bay and Chas. Johnson is credited with the biggest catch yet, having landed about thirty the other night. They weighed from thirty to forty pounds apiece.—Times.

A big meteor which fell at South Slough about a year ago has been found. When the meteor fell Bob DeMerritt saw it and thought that it dropped somewhere along the beach. Ever since then he has been searching for it when in the locality where he thought it had fallen. Yesterday Mr. DeMerritt was on the beach at low tide and found the meteor. It weighs about sixty pounds and is a fine specimen.—Record.
