WATER SUPPLY.

Now that the city has decided on the purchase of the Bandon water system there should be further steps taken to increase the supply. It is a generally known fact that the present supply will not long be adequate for the needs of the city.

SUMMER CAMPERS.

If it were possible to bring a manufacturing industry to Bandon which would provide a considerable payroll, for nothing but the efforts of its citizens to interest the prospective capital, how quickly we would get busy.

A camping party passing the summer here will spend from $50 to $200 with the local merchants, depending on the size of the party and the length of their stay.

Another fire in the Gold Beach hotel was narrowly averted Friday morning by the timely notice of Mrs. Walter Miller, who at the time had charge of the house.

The Recorder job department can handle that job for you in a hurry.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

MYRTLE POINT NEWS From the Enterprise: J. F. Wendling, of the Estabrook Company, was here forepart of the week and shipped out eleven cars of ties which the various contractors had delivered in the yards here.

LANGLOIS NEWS From the Leader: Mr. J. T. James and daughter, Miss Lenora, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. E. James, of this place, departed for their home in Bandon Monday.

NORTH BEND NEWS From the Harbor: Robertson & Flemming, who have been on the bay for the past two weeks negotiating with the Crawford Point Land company for their platted townsite at Cooston, closed the deal last Friday for a consideration of $100,000 at Cooston.

the roof of that building last Thursday. Mr. Rooke fell from the main roof to the roof of the porch and then to the ground alighting on his head and shoulders the shock came near breaking his neck; however, the vertebrae was so badly bruised that a hemorrhage was caused near the spinal cord and the injured man is paralyzed below the waist line.

COQUILLE NEWS

From the Sentinel: The people of Myrtle Creek district are grading their school grounds, putting in a new water system and making other improvements, at an expense of $400, and will probably succeed in their purpose to place their school in the "A Standard" class.

PORT ORFORD NEWS From the Tribune: Fred Guerin has bought C. A. Jamieson's Buick touring car and has put it on the run from Port Orford north to Bandon and Coos Bay points.

Our popular druggist, R. S. Knowlton, with daughter, Naomi, has engaged passage on the Speedwell which will sail from Bandon for Friday next Sunday. They start then for a two month's eastern trip which will be spent mostly in visiting Mr. K's old home in central Arkansas, where most of his relatives reside.

HOA. Vernon Parsons, a member of the House of Representatives from Lane county, who owns a large ranch west of Eugene, was here last Saturday. He says he has been around the world and the valley of the Coquille is the finest valley he has ever seen.

Mr. Towne, inspector for the Coos River Cow Testing Association, states that Roy Landrith has the best cow in the association. During the month of May she produced 107 pounds of butter fat, and as it brought about forty cents per pound her income for the month was about $42.80.

GOLD BEACH NEWS

Another fire in the Gold Beach hotel was narrowly averted Friday morning by the timely notice of Mrs. Walter Miller, who at the time had charge of the house. This is the second fire that has started in the hotel the last month, the first one from the flue but this one started in the telephone room. Behind a curtain on a shelf in this room stood a can of matches which ignited setting the curtain on fire.

gineer to prepare plans and specifications for the continuing the projected plan of paving from California to Washington and east to Stanton, three more blocks in all.

Tomas Winfield, a tiemaker employed at Harris' camp on the Sengstacken place, about two miles from the North Inlet landing, was instantly killed late Saturday afternoon by a tree falling on him.

Natal Day celebration of the Order of Eastern Star meets this year in North Bend on August 31. All the lodges of the county will be represented and it is expected several hundred guests will be present.

The city council of Eastside accompanied by a number of representative citizens visited Cooston last Sunday to look over the proposed annexing the east side of the bay to the town of Eastside. It is proposed to connect the two places by a plank road and draw bridge across Coos river. The committee of both places are reported to be highly enthusiastic on the plan of incorporating the two places and believe that with the vast amount of lots held by the several townsite companies when taxed in their just rate compared with small property holders living there, a vast amount of improvements could be made.

PORT ORFORD NEWS From the Tribune: Fred Guerin has bought C. A. Jamieson's Buick touring car and has put it on the run from Port Orford north to Bandon and Coos Bay points.

A gentleman and his wife, who were touring the coast in their auto ran the machine off the grade on the mountain south of town Saturday. The car turned a complete summersault, and landed some 30 or 40 feet down the hill and right side up again. The passengers were thrown out, and while considerably bruised were not seriously injured.

The remains of Mary A. Divilbiss, who died in Alameda, Cal., on July 30th, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Emma Bowne, was shipped to Port Orford, and last Saturday afternoon she was laid to rest beside her husband in the cemetery at this place. Funeral services were conducted in the church and at the grave by Rev. Paull. A residence of over 10 years in this neighborhood had endeared Mrs. Divilbiss to many of our people, and a large number of sorrowing friends paid their last tribute to her memory by attending the funeral.

C. H. Pearce has been appointed by the County Court as inspector of the Chetco bridge. Mr. Pearce has been a contractor for many years, and is thoroughly familiar with wood and concrete construction work.

The fourth annual agate carnival held at Port Orford on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, was one of the best attended and most enjoyable celebrations ever held in the county. All the towns in Coos county were well represented, and northern Curry turned out en masse. The weather and the grounds at Agate Beach were both ideal for camping and 65 tents were stretched in the trees surrounding the exhibition room and dancing pavillion. Not one accident happened to mar the pleasure of the occasion, and the success of this year promises a still larger attendance next year.
