C. A. Lagerstrom and W. S. Hodge of the Smith forestry service passed through Bandon recently on their way to the forest fires south of the city. There are no dangerous forest fires near here according to reports, but it is the desire to keep them down so there will be no danger of spreading.

The Bandon Dry Goods Co. has moved into the new Ellingson building and are now open for business on a larger scale than ever. J. A. Byrne is moving his furniture store from the First National bank building into the Fahy-Morrison building which is being vacated by the Bandon Dry Goods Co.

Mrs. A. S. Elliott received word the other day that her father, John Sargensen, had been in an automobile accident near Wenatchee, Wash., and was quite seriously hurt. There were three other men in the auto and one of them was probably fatally injured. Mr. Sargensen is quite well known in Bandon, having visited at the Elliott home several times.

Wm. Hite has been down from Coquille for a few days looking after business in connection with his property here. He has asked the city to make some kind of arrangement to drain the low land generally known as the Hite pond. Mr. Hite claims the city closed up his ditch thus doing great damage to his property by allowing the water to stand on it during the rainy season.

Mr. Foss, superintendent of the Prosper mill, was in the city Wednesday with a remonstrance against the road running from Bear Creek road via Parkersburg and into Prosper. He stated that the road simply went into a back yard at Prosper and did no good for anybody except two or three families. He desires to have this road discontinued and a different proposition taken up.
