

MAJESTIC

THE RANGE WITH A REPUTATION

In case of serious illness, you wouldn't call in any old doctor, but would get the best doctor you knew of, The Doctor with a Reputation, the doctor that has shown his worth by years of good honest service.

Then why buy any old range, when you can get THE GREAT MAJESTIC, THE RANGE WITH A REPUTATION—a reputation won by years of constant, honest and economical service.

The Majestic is made right—OF NON-BREAKABLE MALLEABLE IRON, and RUST-RESISTING CHARCOAL IRON. All parts of the Majestic are riveted together (not bolted) perfectly tight—no cold air enters range or hot air escapes, thus making perfect with about half the fuel used in a range that is bolted and pasted together with stove putty.

The ALL-COPPER NOVELTY RESERVOIR on the MAJESTIC is absolutely the only reservoir worthy of the name. IT HEATS 15 GALLONS OF WATER WHILE BREAKFAST IS COOKING, and when water boils, it can be moved away from fire by simply sliding lever.

Call at our store and let us show you why the MAJESTIC is absolutely the best range on the market.

Your neighbor has one—ask for it.

AT THE THEATRES

"WHEN ROME RULED"

The historical background of this picture is accurately presented. The early persecution of the Christians not only in Rome but in the tributary provinces, is made the moving forces of an absorbing story of love, intrigue, conspiracy, treachery and bloodshed. The acting, aided by realistic settings, faithfully reproduce the life of those troubled and exciting times. Perhaps some defects of plot construction might be pointed out if one should become extremely critical, but on the whole the events are presented in a straight-forward thread of action that generally holds the spectator's breathless interest. The most dependable features of the entire five reels, those that will be sure to be received with zest by every audience, are the wild fierce lions which are photographed on two different occasions about to devour the heroine, but are prevented each time by the bravery of the hero. The especially thrilling part is seeing the Cristain maidens being given over to savage beasts for the delectation of the Roman populace, and being rescued just at the right time by a young and handsome Roman youth, who has been smitten with love for the fair unfortunate and gives up all—family, wealth, brilliant prospects—to marry her, the only demand on her part being that he become a Christian. All the settings are in keeping with the ideas of Roman luxury and elegance in the provinces in the time of the Empire.

This picture will be shown at the Grand theatre next Friday, Sept. 25.

"LUCILLE LOVE."

The fourteenth installment, and as the picture nears the end the interest is naturally enlarged. Just who will win out, or whether a compromise will be effected is very much in the dark, and there are only two reels left to clear up the whole affair.

The action in this installment is perhaps the best of the entire picture. Through the 2,000 feet it is kept up, leaving a very desirable picture. Another mystery is created in this installment that will need clearing up in the finale. The butler who has caused considerable trouble for Loubeque, is caught in that persons room. The spy drags him into Lucille's room and after a fight apparently kills him in cold blood. This is so out of keeping with the character of Loubeque that it is probable that Thompson faints rather than is shot. Loubeque telephones for detectives and when they reach the house they make a mistake and arrest Lucille and the picture ends with a humorous scene in the police station where Lucille establishes her innocence.

At the Grand next Wednesday, Sept. 23rd.

In this issue we publish the statement of the First National Bank, which has been delayed a week owing to the fact that the blanks did not arrive in time. The statement shows an increase of deposits of about $21,000 since June 30th, when the last statement was made, which is certainly a good showing.
