New County Proposed.

The question of creating the new county of Siuslaw will be submitted to the people of Lane county at the November election. The movement was started at a meeting held at Mapleton several months ago. Robert S. Huston, publisher of the Siuslaw Pilot was at the head of the executive committee and has had charge of circulating the petition. There was no difficulty in securing more than enough signers, indicating the plan is a popular one. The law requires that there be a vote of 35 per cent of the people outside the district and 55 per cent of the people inside the district for it to carry. The new county was wanted because it is claimed that the county seat of Lane county is so far away from the coast part of the county. The county court on petition has placed the proposition on the ballot.
The new county if created will include the following precincts of Lane county: Hecta, Minerva, Florence, Glendora, Mapleton, Glentena, Lane, Walton, Mound, a portion of Cheshire, a portion of Coyote and a portion of Siuslaw.—Coos Bay Harbor.
