BANDON, OREGON, OCTOBER 13, 1914.

CASSIDY SELLS HOTEL BANDON

LEE EATON AND RAY HEAD

TAKE OVER HOTEL FROM

G. CASSIDY AND WILL OPERATE IT IN FUTURE.

A deal was closed Friday evening whereby Mr. Eaton and Ray Head took over the Hotel Bandon, which has been operated by E. K. Cassidy for several years. This is a very good hotel and the local hotel keepers should be pleased.

The new proprietors, together with Mr. Cassidy, will continue to run the place as usual.

The public are not aware that they will get the same courteous treatment.

Mr. Cassidy and family have left for the Peninsula, where they will spend the winter together, with some other people part of the time, and return to the Pacific coast next spring, which they will operate in the big hotel business.

DEAL FOR TELEPHONE CO.

IN FULLY CONSIDERATION.

The deal for the lease of the Coast Bandon Telephone Co. to Portland and Seattle, which was reported a short time ago, is now consummated, the new lease to take effect in at any time.

According to reports from Coast Bandon the new company plans extensive improvements in the system which includes the exchanges at Coquille, Myrtle Point, Bandon, Gold Beach, and Myrtle Point, and the interconnecting toll lines and toll service with Curry county. The telephone company is capitalized $100,000.00

MR. AND MRS. ANTE BENNY RENNER LEAVE FOR WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. Ante Benny entered last Thursday, after spending a summer vacation among the cousins, friends, and relatives of the late Mr. Benny, who was killed in the war, at Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny stayed there a few days and then went to Pendleton, Ore., and thence to their home in Chicago, Ill. They will probably remain there until next spring.

LUCY KERRY BANDON.

Lucy Kerry Bandon has returned from a trip to Portland, Ore., where she visited the bride of her brother, Bob Kerry, who is now living in Portland.

WYATT DARES PACIFIC.

WILL BEND BAY IN SPRING.

Eugene Gard, the Willamette Falls engineer, who has performed the most of the automatic part of the work for Bandon, has arrived in this city, where he was photographed by the Bandon times, and thence returned to Bandon, where he will make his new residence in the near future.

If you are not a reader of the Bandon Times, you should join the ranks of those who are, as the paper is the only newspaper that prints the news of this town.

RIDICULOUS CLAIMS.

MAN TO KILL HIMSELF.

Jasper Haynes of Bandon, a veteran of the Civil War, killed himself yesterday in the presence of his friends. He was backed up by a man who was a witness of the incident.

MISS TILTONS.

WHEN TO BE IN BANDON.

A great many Bandon people have been reading "The Tre of Egypt," a serial story in the Portland Oregonian, and the story of the Grand Rapids railroad in our own city, and they have been interested by the facts that the story is written by a man who has known the country for many years and has been a resident of the city for many years.

BANDON COUNCIL CONSIDER.

BANDON AVENUE.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Friday evening to consider the matter of improvements along the main avenue. It was decided not to make any changes at this time.
