LANGLOIS NEWS

From the Leader:
Mr. and Mrs. Klepfer and their children, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sabin, of Bandon, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Sabin of Langlois Sunday.

Mrs. Judge Cox, of Floras Creek, drove to Bandon Saturday to attend the Eastern Star lodge, and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hawkins and family and N. L. Maney autoed to Bandon one day last week and returned the same day.

Lex Cope, manager of the Langlois Dairy Products Co.'s cheese factory, departed last week for San Francisco where Mr. Cope will attend to business.

Miss Clara Thorhaven of North Langlois departed for Bandon Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Daisy E. Gross.

N. L. Maney, who has purchased a small ranch of F. T. McMullen near the Walker place, is clearing a place to build a nice bungalow and other buildings.

Lawrence Suckau of Floras Creek was in Langlois Monday on business. Mr. Suckau has made many improvements on his farm and is now erecting a large stock and hay barn.

NORTH BEND NEWS

From the Harbor:
In about two weeks the paper pulp mill at the C. A. Smith plant in Marshfield will be running full force. Orders sufficient to put the mill on a night and day run have been received. Mr. R. Nerdrum, one of the firm says that the mill is now running about half its capacity and is turning out about fifteen to sixteen tons of pulp a day. Running full capacity night and day the mill will produce about thirty-five tons a day. The steamer Beattie Dollar of the Dollar line will be in Coos Bay in about ten days and will load all of the pulp finished at that time for shipment to Japan.

The body of the sailor on the schooner Encore who jumped overboard has not been found. The man's name according to the master of the vessel was Sigurd J. Jentoft and he was a Norwegian. He was a stowaway on the vessel and when found on the ship after it left Chile he was put to work. The tug Daring from Aberdeen, Wash., arrived in port today to tow the dredge Oregon to Grays Harbor. The dredge has no more funds to work here and will be used in the Washington harbor. The Daring is a tug which attracted a good deal of attention not long ago when the crew rescued one of the passengers on a small boat which capsized near Aberdeen. Five were drowned but the tug saved one of the men. She is a strong tug, perfectly capable of handling the dredge at sea.

The planking of the road to the light house is now assured and the work will be started in a short time and completed before winter. Capt. Dunson of the lighthouse returned home from Coquille where he went and reported to the county court that he had gathered $800 in donations. The court had promised to give a sum equal to that which the captain was able to secure and he was informed that the money was forthcoming. This will give about $1600 to plank the road.

COQUILLE NEWS

From the Sentinel:
Mrs. Emma McDonald of this city was a sure enough prize winner at the Myrtle Point fair. She made 22 entries there and was awarded 16 blue ribbons, two red ones and two white ones.

J. A. Dearmond of Fairview yesterday afternoon brought in to the county clerk's office a couple of pelts that drew some money. One was a bob cat and the other a panther nearly eight feet long. The latter was shot

September 22 in the timber in Section 28 on the west side of that valley. The hide was well cured and the county pays $10 and the state game commission $15 for a panther. At that rate hardly one a month is brought in now. The wild cat was worth only $3, the state paying nothing for them now.

The conference of the M. E. Church for Western Oregon was held at the Centenary church at Portland last week, and Rev. C. H. Bryan of this city, who was in attendance, says it was the best ever held, with some remarkably fine addresses. Mr. Bryan was returned to the Coquille charge for another year.

C. M. Skeels returned Monday evening from the state fair at Salem. After being subjected to steam heat at the hotel in Roseburg, the butter from the Coquille valley creamery, which he took for exhibition at Salem, scored 91 points and ranked fourth. And it was a week old at that, while the prize winner was delivered at the fair the day the awards were made.

Commissioner Armstrong is getting the material assembled and the work started for the construction of an up-to-date water system out at the county farm. He has actively superintended a great deal of the county work the past summer at a considerable saving to the taxpayers, owing to his wide experience along such lines.

William Wilson, of Prosper, was quite severely hurt in E. E. Johnson's mill Wednesday night. He was fixing a part of the machinery when in some way his arm became caught in the gearing. The elbow was badly bruised and the arm laid open from elbow to shoulder, the muscles being torn loose.

PORT ORFORD NEWS

From the Tribune:
County Attorney W. H. Meredith was called to Port Orford last Friday to appear in a case brought by Mr. Wells, Sr., against Mr. Clemens for assault with a deadly weapon. The parties who both reside on Sixes appeared before Justice Wright with their witnesses Saturday, but after investigating the case the County Attorney was of the opinion that prosecution was not warranted, and he prevailed on Mr. Wells to withdraw his complaint.

W. B. Milbury, who for the past several years has been in charge of this particular portion of the Siskiyou National Forest, with headquarters at McGribble station on Middle Elk, has resigned his position and in company with Mrs. Milbury has moved to near Myrtle Point where he will engage in the poultry business.

At the ripe old age of ninety years and past, Elizabeth C. Zumwalt passed peacefully away at her son's home on Sixes river Sunday, October 4.

Mr. Steinhoff, the Bandon harness man, spent a couple of days attending to business matters in Port Orford since our last issue. He is a strong believer in the future development and growth of the town, and has shown his good judgment by investing in several lots.

Rev. B. B. Paull and son, Burt, came down from Coquille Monday with a team after Mr. Paull's household effects which he did not take with him when he left here a couple of weeks ago. The late Methodist conference transferred Rev. Paull to Marcola, in Lane county, to which place he and Mrs. Paull will move in the near future.

The Rustler dropped into our harbor last Thursday afternoon and started to unload a considerable cargo of freight. The wind, which had been blowing from the south, increased in velocity as though for her benefit and she was compelled to pull out to sea again with the work unfinished. The weather changed the following day, however, and she returned and discharged the rest of her cargo.

FOR CONGRESS

FRED HOLLISTER

The reason the Courier asks voters to give Congressman Hawley's place to Fred Hollister of Coos County, is because Mr. Hawley is not making good—the same reason the Courier would let go of an incompetent printer and put another man in his place.

There isn't an individual or newspaper in this district that can ask for Mr. Hawley's return to congress on his record—for his record won't bear the strain.

During his past four years in congress he has not passed a bill—except private pension bills.

This of itself would not be anything against him, perhaps, but during his term in congress he has come down the line with the big interests and standpatters on about everything they have tried to jimmy through the national legislature—and this office has his record to prove it.

He has been the handy man to the big bunch to such an extent that such periodicals as LaFollett's magazine has held him up to the view of the people as a "Me, too," congressman.

Heretofore the Democrats have nominated a weak brother to run against Mr. Hawley, and made his return easy.

Whether this was misfortune or intent doesn't matter now.

But this year Mr. Hawley has a five one for an opponent—a man running against him who is going to beat him out.

Fred Hollister of Coos Bay is every ounce a hustler and doer.

He is progressive from the ground up, a progressive for progressive Oregon. He believes this district has been overlooked in the Washington shuffle, and he wants a new deal.

He believes that a congressman who has served eight years and had 170 of his 175 bills killed, must have been asleep at this witch.

It is certain that Mr. Hawley has always been lame so far as Oregon has been concerned.

Supposed to be representing this state, a state which emphatically went on record for reduced tariff duties, Mr. Hawley took the stump in Massachusetts advocating a repeal of the present tariff laws and a return to protection duties.

There are no reasons for returning Mr. Hawley, and there are the best of reasons for electing Mr. Hollister and having this state represented by a man who represents the people.

It's a joke, a burlesque for progressive Oregon, to return this Disciple of Joe Cannon.

We have timber to beat him and we will have correct representation in Mr. Hollister.

If voters of Clakamas county will use their heads and forget party, Mr. Hawley will be a once-waser November 3, and we will have a congressman in Washington who will not have to think twice whether he is representing Massachusetts or Oregon.—Oregon City Courier.

LAST THREE PRESIDENTS OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS:

"I am in favor of Local Option. I am a thorough believer in LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT and believe that every self-governing community which constitutes a social unit should have the right to CONTROL the matter of the regulation or the withholding of licenses."

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

Ex-President, Statesman, Jurist and Professor. In an address on Civic Duty, said:

"Nothing is more foolish, nothing more utterly at variance with sound policy, than to enact a law which, on account of conditions surrounding the community, is incapable of enforcement. Such instances are presented by sump-tuary laws by which the sale of intoxicating liquors is prohibited under penalties in localities where the public sentiment . . . will not sustain the enforcement of the law."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Ex-President, Soldier, Explorer and one of the most remarkable leaders in the United States, is a strong champion of LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT and Home Rule. He has never raised his voice in behalf of statewide prohibition, and so he has suffered attacks from radical and hysterical prohibitionists. As between a man of Theodore Roosevelt's ability and standing and those who are the paid emissaries of professional propagandists, the voters of Oregon will not be slow in passing upon the wisdom and credibility of the witnesses.

With these three National Leaders agreed on the Issue of Prohibition, isn't it wisdom to follow their course?
