Mr. Bingles Melodrama

This is a Broadway star feature of the famous Vitagraph company and presents Hughie Mack, the big fat actor as the hero in this laughable farce comedy, and Flora Finch, Kate Price, Josie Sadler and Rose Tapley do themselves proud on the feminine side of this side-splitting film comedy. The very fact that "Vitagraph" produced the picture is proof positive that it's a good one. From beginning to end the situations are humorous and of a nature that will tickle your humor. See it at the Grand next Sunday night. Five excellent reels of pictures.

Suffering Belgians.

To the Editor of The Recorder—Seven million innocent peaceable persons are in dire want in Belgium, where their homes have been destroyed, or are held by invaders. The sufferers are mostly women, children and the aged and crippled. England, France, Germany and other countries cannot take care of or feed these even millions of Belgians. An urgent appeal is made to the charity disposed to send help and to lend it at once. We must not neglect the needy at home, but won't you urge your readers to contribute to these people in Belgium? I would suggest that the cashiers of the First National Bank and Bank of Bandon act as treasurers for this fund, as they can transmit it with facility, and little expense to the proper person in charge of the relief fund, either in New York or Europe. If this suggestion is adopted I will be happy to head the subscription with $10.00. Very truly yours,
A. HABERLY.
