WASHINGTON NEWS EXCHANGE LETTER

Washington D. C., November 30.—President Wilson has announced a supplementary neutrality proclamation covering the Panama Canal Zone during the European war, which forbids the use of airships and of wireless within the canal jurisdiction by any belligerent power. It provides strict regulations to prevent any aid or hospitality to any belligerent within the zone.

The proclamation extends its prohibition to aircraft, public or private, of belligerent powers, which are forbidden to rise from or descend upon Canal Zone territory, or to pass through the air spaces above the land or water zone. It also forbids any use of wireless telegraph by belligerent vessels within the zone jurisdiction except on business in connection with the canal.

The impression is growing among naval officials and authorities in Congress that the present destruction of English cruisers and battleships by German submarines may deter the government from embarking upon the enterprise of making armor plate for such vessels instead of buying it from private firms.

NEW POSTMASTER RUMORED FOR COOS BAY CITIES

It has been stated thought unofficially, that there will be two new Postmasters named for the Bay cities and both are to be democrats, says the Coos Bay Harbor.

In North Bend J. T. McGuire seems to have the sanction of the majority of the clan, though August Hoelling, Jr. is also a candidate. It is said by those in a position to swing the appointment.

In Marshfield W. J. Rust is a candidate and the office seems to be his having the endorsement of the leading men of the Democratic party in the county. Ex-Supt. F. A. Golden is also a candidate.

draws the Trey of Hearts and loses. Rose faints as Judith starts to drink. Judith, however, throws the glass aside and dresses in Rose's clothes. Meantime, Alan enters the building opposite, strikes the iron workers, and they prepare a steam crane for his use. With one foot in the iron line, he is coming to Rose's window, where he takes Judith from the window, thinking it is Rose, and they are lowered to the street.

At this moment Marrophat, seeing Alan being lowered to Rose's room, rushes through the hall and bursts into the room but is too late. He mistakes Rose for Judith until, as she comes from her faint her words show him his error. When he learns that Judith is going to marry Alan instead of Rose, he rushes out in time to see the machine disappearing.
