Bandon's Greatest Price Cutting Sale Continues

Some Sale!

That's what they say this is. SOME SALE! We told you when we started this sale that it would positively be Bandon's greatest sale. It has certainly proven to be. We also told you that we started something that we were going to finish. We're doing that, too. And we're finishing with a big hurrah. And we are giving values besides, that force you to buy. If you have been one of the fortunate satisfied customers that have passed through our doors since the opening of the sale, you know that. Over 4,000 people have passed through our doors, and a great many have returned to buy again, and there are still others who have been told about this wonderful sale by their friends of the almost giving away prices that we have placed upon this stock of clean, new merchandise. This is one statement you do not have to believe—we do not ask you to believe it until you have investigated for yourself. That's the thing to do.

Murder!

It might as well be called murder. Just think of it! Thousands of dollars worth of fine, new and up-to-the-minute Christmas merchandise thrown to the mercy of the public at this time of the year. At a season when merchants make their big profits. However, profits cannot figure with us. We must get rid of the merchandise before Christmas, and in order to do this, we have veritably cut the life out of the prices. Cost not even considered, and when we say that, we mean just exactly what we say. One dollar spent here will do the duty of three or four ordinarily. We are not baiting you with a few items and expect to make up on something else. Everything in the store has been placed on sale. Nothing has been reserved.

Of course, we do not expect everybody to believe everything we say. That would be contrary to human nature, but we do ask you to come in and look over the merchandise and prices in verification of our claims. The reputation of this concern and the honesty policy we have always maintained would not permit of our making misstatements.
