W. J. Sweet and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sweet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hanly, at the Hanly ranch.

C. M. Spencer and wife left on the Elizabeth for a trip to San Francisco. They expect to return home again next week.

Charles Marshall, who has been visiting his brother, J. B. Marshall, of this city, went to Coquille Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Longston.

P. H. Poole has been up from Port Orford a few days looking after business affairs and calling on friends. He will also go to Coos Bay before returning to Port Orford.

If you are interested in buying pianos see Sabro Brothers. Good pianos from $325 up to $1200, delivered before Christmas, and sold on terms if desired.—9814.

A large bunch of Bandonians went up the river Sunday for a fishing and hunting trip. Some went to Randolph slough where they caught a nice supply of trout. Others went on up to Beaver slough to try for a bunch of ducks.

Ralph Moore returned last week from Toledo, Ore., where he had been since the Moore mill started up in that city. He expects to remain here for some time assisting in the business at this place.

The North Bend daily paper which was to have started about January 1st, has failed to materialize according to the Marshfield Record, and Mr. Weldy, who was to have started the in California or Western Oregon in a city of 5,000 inhabitants or over, daily is still looking for a location.

Mrs. A. J. Hartman returned on the Elizabeth Christmas morning from San Francisco. Mrs. Hartman left recently and had not intended to return until Spring, but on account of the recent fire which destroyed the two Hartman houses, she returned to look after her insurance interests and other business.

According to the Gold Beach Globe our friend Moss Averill is in charge of a bunch of inmates of the Curry county jail, cleaning up stumps, old fences, etc., from the county court yard. The notice did not say whether Moss was an inmate or not, but his many friends here do not believe that he has ever gotten himself into such serious trouble.

The Coquille Sentinel says that Jasper Yoakum has a steer weighing nearly 3000 pounds out on his ranch near the county farm, that he is thinking of exhibiting at the San Francisco fair next year. That would certainly be some steer and a mighty good advertisement for the kind of cattle that can be raised in Coos county.
