The Bandon Recorder is published by the Bandon Recorder Corp, which has recently been renamed and moved from the old office on the corner of 1st and Main streets. The new office is located at 228 Main Street, Bandon, Oregon. The newspaper is printed on Monday and distributed throughout the community.

JUNIORS HONORED WITH PROMISES

The Bandon Junior High School held its annual prom on the evening of the 19th. The band was provided by the Bandon High School band, and the dance was held in the school gymnasium. The students wore their best attire, and the evening was a great success. The prom was sponsored by the PTA and the Bandon Junior High School.

ANTISOCIETY

The Anti-Society of the Portland Rose Festival has issued a statement condemning the activities of the Portland Rose Festival. The organization, which was formed to protest against the Portland Rose Festival, has been active in recent years and has held several rallies and demonstrations. The statement issued by the Anti-Society is reproduced below:

"We, the Anti-Society of the Portland Rose Festival, condemn the activities of the Portland Rose Festival. The festival, which is held annually in Portland, Oregon, is a symbol of the capitalist system and its oppression of the working class. We believe that the Portland Rose Festival should be abolished and replaced with a workers' festival that is truly representative of the working class."

The Anti-Society has called for a mass demonstration on the evening of the 20th to protest against the Portland Rose Festival. The demonstration will begin at 7:00 PM at the intersection of 1st and Main streets in Portland. All workers are encouraged to attend.

THE FARMER'S MARKET

The Portland Farmers' Market is held every Saturday morning from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM in the city park. The market features fresh produce, baked goods, and other local products. The market is open to all vendors who wish to sell their products in Portland. The market is organized by the Portland Farmers' Market Association, which is comprised of local farmers and vendors.

THE WEATHER
