A Word to Recorder Readers

The Recorder takes pleasure in the number of its readers who, unsolicited, bring to it their "wanted" and "for sale" ads. They perhaps, are among the many who have taken the Recorder for years until it has become an institution to them, who take pride in it and wish to see it prosper. The present management is endeavoring to place the Recorder in its rightful place in the community and its readers can be of material assistance to it. The Recorder wishes to publish all local news items there are and will be grateful for tips and pointers in items of interest. Another way in which Recorder readers can be of assistance to it is by patronizing its advertisers. Whenever it can be consistently done Recorder readers should patronize Recorder advertisers.

A. D. Ferdue went to Coquille Monday to attend to legal business.

"Tillies Punctured Romance" which held the boards at the Grand last Wednesday evening kept the audience in an uproar from start to finish. A great deal of the rough and tumble stuff is funny only in name, the situations being too mechanical to appear comical to any but the crudest intellects. But Tillie's romance was the real thing. She passed from one ridiculous situation to another and wound up with a plunge into the ocean where her three successive rescues were all ludicrous. A large audience was present and all enjoyed the comedy immensely.

The ball given at Dregmland rink last Saturday night by Kausrud's orchestra and the owners of the hall for the benefit of Bandon Post, No. 50 was a great success. We the members of the G. A. R. committee in behalf of Bandon Post are desirous of thanking the donors for the net proceeds of the ball with their assistance and with that of the public generally who patronized the same. The army league calls given by Prof. Kausrud & Mayor Taping were exceptionally fine and an enjoyable feature of the occasion.—G. A. R. Committee.

Apple and lilac blossoms are in profusion in Coquille and on the upper river.
