AVERILL'S

We are indebted to the Coquille Valley Sentinel for the following interesting items:

Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird probably made the best time ever in taking that batch of four conficts out to Salem last week. He left here at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning going to Roseburg by the old Coos Bay wagon road, and got back at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, returning the same way.

Sheriff Alfred Johnson left this city Monday morning for San Francisco where he had been summoned as a witness in the U. S. court cases against the "Barnakle" counterfeiters. He went out by the Coos Bay wagon road to Roseburg, but where he had got as far as Ashland, found the train confronted by so many washouts in northern California that it was altogether uncertain when travel would be resumed. So he turned back and went to Portland to take the O-W, R. & N. route to Ogden, Utah, and thence by the Central Pacific line to San Francisco which he will probably reach the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist started for San Francisco Monday night. Mr. L. had been subpoenaed as a witness in the Barnakle counterfeiting case there; and thought there could be no better opportunity to make a visit to the big fair, and so kill two birds with one stone.

Commencement exercises at the Coquille High School will begin on Sunday night, May 23, with the Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. C. H. Bryan, at the M. E. Church South.

At the school bond election at Powers Wednesday, the district in which the new town is located approved the $18,000 bond issue for a new school building by a vote of 37 to 11.

County Judge James Watson started Tuesday morning for Redlands, California, where he will visit his aunt Mrs. Kate Floyd. He is making this trip partly on business and partly for pleasure, and expects to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition before returning. He will be gone until June 1.

The steamer Elder has been withdrawn from the service at Coos Bay and the Kilburn and the Santa Clara put on, giving a five-day service between Portland and San Francisco calling at Marshfield and Eureka.

F. W. Kronenberg, of Denver, Colo., came in Wednesday, via Mapleton, for a visit of a few days with his mother Mrs. John Kronenberg, and his sister, Mrs. Ida Owen.

Entertains Teachers And Class-Mates

Ottile Lewin is Hostess at a Party to High School Associates and Instructors

A pleasant feature of the glad commencement season was a party given by Miss Ottile Lewin at the home of her parents on Oregon avenue last Friday evening. Her guests were her class mates of the senior class of the high school and the faculty thereof. The interior of the house was prettily decorated in honor of the occasion, the class colors, blue and white, being made use of. The evening was happily spent with music and games, a feature of the former being a vocal solo by Prof. Quigley.

As to the games, John Windsor won first prize as champion guesser and a similar honor was won by Geo. Stoltz for a demonstration of artistic ability. Delicious refreshments were served and considerable entertainment was derived from the favors which fell to the guests. These were blue and white manikins of the "What are the Wild Waves Saying" variety each one stamped with the year 1915.

The following were the guests of the evening:

Agnes Canterbury, Mary Donaldson, Edna Gallier, Ruby Tilton, Helen Stoltz, Vera Nelson, Hattie Boak, Ottile Lewin, George Stoltz, Jack Kronenberg, John Windsor, Thos. Chatham, Halbert Langlois, Merton Lowery, Clair Shumate, Kannon Smith, Reiner Geisendorfer, Cressie Bingaman, Mr. Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin, Miss Rodgers, Miss Abbott, Miss Loren.

Every young girl and every father should see the expose of the White Slave traffic films in five wonderful reels at the Grand Wednesday night May 19th, one night only.

THE INSIDE OF THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Samuel H. London's World Renowned Photoplay. Five Big Thrilling Reels. This is the photoplay that was seized and stopped by the Seattle police at the Melbourn theater. It was afterwards released without prejudice and at the earnest solicitation of reform workers in that city it has been engaged for a return date in the same city.

If you sympathize with crooked police work and the ruin of young girls, don't come. You will be offended. If you know the trail of the serpent from homes like your own to the gate ways of hell, go to the theater and see a powerful sermon without words. You will come away a clearer minded man or woman.

Helen Knight, physician in charge of the Magdalena home, New York city, says of this film: "The presentation of your picture, 'The Inside of the White Slave Traffic' in every town and hamlet in the United States would mean the elimination of White Slavery."

The mayor of Anacortes, Washington, says: "If there were more such pictures shown, the country would be the better for it." Thousands have said the same thing.

You can't make the picture of a bat look like a humming bird, but there is nothing in these pictures to offend the pure minded.

No children under 18 years admitted unless accompanied by parents. Endorsed by press and clergy.

Grand Theater, Wednesday May 19 Admission 20 cts., Children 10 cts.
