Mrs. Geo. Belloni, daughters and son Mason, leave on the Elizabeth for San Francisco and a two week's visit at the fair. There they will be joined by Mr. Belloni and they will proceed to their future home near Woodland, Cal. which is located in the Sacramento valley, a short distance north of San Francisco.

Caucuses will be held in the city June 3rd and the city recorder has been instructed to find suitable places for holding the same. No easy task by the way for the enlargement of the franchise to include women has made the old assembling places in which men folk formerly deliberated not be thought of.

Captain David Perkins, who went to San Francisco to lay the matter of the suspension of his license before the government officials there is expected to return on the Nann Smith which leaves the exposition city tomorrow. He has engaged a lawyer and expects to have his protest go through the regular course although in this season of vacations, he found it hard to locate all the officials for whom he was seeking.

It is likely that the city will shortly establish special flat rates to apply to manufacturing institutions who require extra large quantities of water. Mr. Baker of the Bandon creamery who protested to the city fathers about the rates, said that under present conditions should the creamery use city water for all their requirements it would cost in the neighborhood of $30 per month, or about a cent a pound for the butter they made.

On the checkerboard of the local steamboat service there were several moves contemplated for this morning: Job Dunham having served his sixty days of suspension from duty took up the tiller of the Telegraph once more. Captain Alva Lee of the Telegraph took charge of the Charm for a few days until a successor could be found for Captain John Myers who has become tired of river work and is anxious to return to his farm at Norway.

A feature of the attractions at the Grand last Saturday night was the misadventures of "Sissy." She made a trip through the big vitagraph plant in the east and although in her adventures she managed to extract considerable fun for the spectators yet the most interesting part of the film was the operations of that great picture plant with its succession of distinguished artists and paraphernalia for producing any kind of a drama from pirates to pink tea parties.

The Hub Store was jammed from early morning until closing time for the past four days. The people of Bandon are sure taking advantage of the sale.

It is reported to us that Prof. Turnbull of Coquille who has been elected superintendent of the city schools will move to Bandon in the near future to get in touch with his work here.

The pictures exposing the "White Slave traffic" at the Grand last Wednesday night were witnessed by an exceptionally large crowd that filled the theater at both performances and came close to establishing a record. Over six hundred paid admissions and many parents took their daughters showing the interest which the subject aroused.

A meeting of the Coos Co. Business Men's association was held in the Bandon city hall Wednesday morning. Secretary Powell came over from Marshfield to direct the meeting. The association has 8,000 people listed in its dooms day book and aims to give customers a rating on patrons, especially those who float from one community to another. 3,000 people are listed in the Coquille valley.

W. S. Snyder of Four Mile, last Saturday quietly packed his personal belongings while his wife was shopping in Bandon and departed for parts unknown. Mrs. Snyder appeared in Bandon Monday morning and swore out a warrant for his arrest for failure to support his family. Besides the wife there are two small children aged five and six years respectively. The warrant was telephoned to the sheriff's office.

The great serial study, "The Master Key" is drawing to a close—only two more installments, No 14 and 15 and these two series will prove to be the most interesting of all, lifting the veil of secrecy as to the existence of the rich mother lode of the Master Key mine and who will win out in the end; Dore or Wilkerson. Then I have a sneaking suspicion who marries Ruth—have you? See the close of this interesting story in pictures at the Grand—Thursday, May 27th and June 3rd.

Chauncey Carpenter and E. J. Fay left on the Star and Crescent, motor boat for Rogue river where they will engage in a fishing cruise. That the undaunted courage of the Norsemen still survives is amply illustrated when two men risk the blue deep as these young men frequently do in a motor boat not over twenty feet long carrying one auxiliary sail. They often cruise in sea fishing out of sight of land. Carpenter's narrow escape from death on the wreck of the Randolph did not get his goat nor even dent his courage.

The Closing Out Sale at the Hub Clothing Company as advertised in the Recorder last week and this has met with an excellent patronage. Manager Sullivan says that last Saturday and Friday his sales were at least 50 per cent larger than he expected them to be, that his store was constantly thronged with customers and himself and clerks were kept on the move to wait on the people who came to take advantage of the bargains. It might be to remark parenthetically that the Recorder is not only being read these days but that its advertisements are read also.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

The Epworth League enjoyed a pleasant social hour at the home of Mrs. Ella Nelson on Friday evening.

The sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday will be on the subject of peace. The pastor will attempt to answer the question—"On what grounds may we hope for an international peace that will be permanent?"

The services in the evening will be held in the high school auditorium when the pastor will preach the inaugural sermon for the graduating class.

Teachers Who Are Elected

The following teachers were elected at the meeting of the school board last week: Miss Norma L. Venus, 1st grade; Miss Evadna Kuentzel, 1st A and B; Miss Alice L. Eaton, 2nd A & B; Miss Mary Moore, 3rd grade; Miss Margaret A. Dumphy, 4th grade; Miss Blanche Davidson, 6th B; Miss Tillie Hilde, 7th A; Miss Ida Gamble, 8th grade; Miss Lucile D. McKay, principal of the East Side school; Erma Craine, Domestic Science.

Miss McKay, it is said will not accept the position offered her but will return to her home in Washington. This bad news is offset by an exceedingly good piece of news for Mr. Quigley informs us that he has made up his mind to stay. He had not yet formally accepted and his position was considered in doubt. The news of his intention to remain will be received with pleasure by friends of Bandon's schools.

Carl Ensele who was convicted by the jury some time ago for contributing to the delinquency of a minor from Bandon and who applied to the court to have the sentence postponed to May 21, at that time presented a petition of the court asking that he be paroled. The court disregarded the petition, stating that in addition to being found guilty, the court believed that he had perjured himself on the witness stand and promptly sentenced him to an indeterminate sentence of from 3 to 20 years in the state penitentiary.

Funeral of Milton Cox

The funeral of Milton Cox was held at eleven o'clock on Wednesday at the Ellingson undertaking parlors, Rev. C. M. Knight, officiating. All classes of people were represented in the gathering which was unusually large.

There were literally bushels of flowers which were tastefully arranged in designs, wreath, and bouquets. Two solos, one by Mrs. Arthur Sweet and Mrs. C. M. Knight and another by Mrs. Sweet and Earnest Sidwell were wisely chosen and sympathetically rendered.

Mr. Knight's text was "There was one more sea", from which he drew lessons suited to the sad occasion. Interment took place in the Knight's of Pythias cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent sorrow.
Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cox and Family

ITS NAUGHTY BUT ITS FUNNY

Comical Charles Chaplin, Champion Corn Smasher at the Grand May 26

The film comedy criticized by the Portland Board of Censors may be seen at the Grand Wednesday May 23 Charles Chaplin, the funniest movie comedian in America today, calls his first two part farce comedy made by Essanay company greatest picture he ever appeared in. The plot, briefly described, is as follows:—Chaplin secures a job as assistant actor with the Essanay Comedy company—through stress of circumstances he finally becomes the hero of the play enabling him to take revenge on all the others who abused and mistreated him. He slams everybody and everything—kicks and pummels his enemy, Ben Turpin, steps on the leading lady's train with the result that her shapely silk stockings calves with appendages of feet, in French heeled slippers continue on their upward way unconscious of the public gaze—this is one of the least offences committed by the clever comedian.

This picture has a lot of kick to it, something doing every minute. It is simply a riot of laughter and two reels of fun are bound to make you sit up and take notice.

Charlie Chaplin was the star comedian in Tillie's Punctured Romance and that picture drew bigger crowds than any feature film shown for months. If you want to enjoy yourself come to the Grand, Wednesday night, May 26th and see Chaplin in "His New Job" No advance in price, 10c and 5c.

What Hartman Thinks of the Fair

A. J. Hartman who returned on the Elizabeth from San Francisco says the exposition is the finest yet. "I have seen fairs before" volunteered Mr. Hartman, "but none to equal this one. I saw the expositions at Portland, Chicago, Paris, and the Centennial at Philadelphia but this one has them all beaten. It is larger and better in many ways. It must be better in the manner of things. New appliances and discoveries have made it possible to give an exposition never before equaled." Notwithstanding this and notwithstanding he had paid his board a week in advance Hartman was glad to cut short his visit, had grown tired of sight seeing when the Elizabeth was ready to return.
