MARSHFIELD AND MYRTLE POINT VIEWS AT THE GRAND

Photo play fans will have an opportunity to see the Marshfield and Myrtle Point celebration as preserved in moving pictures by Mr. Westleder of this city. The events filmed were of exceptional interest, being the races at Myrtle Point, the log rolling contests, swimming races and other sports.

The pictures taken in Marshfield give excellent views of the parade, the crowds, and all athletic contests. A novel feature of the picture is the surf boat riding behind a mast motor boat. This picture is of exceptional interest. In all the thousand feet of film secured many Bandonians who took part in the celebration will no doubt find themselves in the picture.

The films will be on exhibition at the Grand theater next Saturday, July 17. Be sure and see this interesting film of the fourth of July celebration.

The regular stage to Coquille, leaving Bandon at 6 o'clock went over the grade on the road near Lampa. The passengers in the car consisted of 4 traveling one of whom, the popular Matt May of Marshfield is reported to have had his shoulder dislocated as a result of the accident. The others escaped with nothing but scratches. The car was making some speed at the time and a loose stone did the trick.
