John R. Stillwell has appealed to the Supreme Court of Oregon from the decision of the Circuit Judge Coke adjudging him to be in contempt for failure to obey the Court's Order, and sentencing him to 60 days in the County Jail until he showed a willingness to comply with the order of the court. It is incumbent upon the wife to stand the expenses to be incurred by the respondent, the State of Oregon, this she has expressed her inability to do, and the district attorney has indicated that he will not further press the contempt proceeding, nor cause the State any expense by reason thereof. Accordingly the appellant will most likely prevail by reason of the State's default.

Visit Of Veteran Editor

Experiences of a Man Sixty Years in The Newspaper Business. Journalism in Missouri and Texas

J. S. McEwen, an old newspaper man and former resident of the county as well as publisher of the Coquille Herald was a visitor in at the Recorder office yesterday. Mr. McEwen was born in Pennsylvania and has been a print shop man in every capacity from devil to fighting editor for 62 years. He published the Herald from 1890 to 1900 and since that time has been in Lake Co., Cal. Lake county is renowned for its mineral and hot springs having more of these than are to be found in the whole of Europe.

In 1860 Mr. McEwen was conducting a daily in the neighborhood of Sedalia, Mo. and although he was a democrat, would not advocate secession and was ordered out of the country. He left just ahead of Quantrell's guerrillas who had planned to hang him and had his property confiscated and his buildings destroyed.

He proceeded to Pennsylvania and enlisted in a regiment three fourths of whom were democrats. He served through the war. He had a brother who was of the first thirty day men to offer their services in the war. This brother had served under Col. R. E. Lee in the Indian wars in Texas and once saved Fitz Hugh Lee from death at the hands of a savage. Lee was shot from his horse, McEwen pulled him from danger; another soldier shot the Indian and cut off a finger because of a curious ring upon it. The soldier thrust the finger in his pocket, mounted Lee's horse and rode away to the battle. Such was war upon the south-west border.

McEwen's brother and Fitz Hugh Lee met four times during the war in the course of truces for collection of wounded and burial of the dead. They had been warm friends and parted in great sorrow for the pursuance of their respective duties.

The brother was shot late in the war and died of his injuries. Printer, McEwen went to Texas in 1868 and had a long list of experiences in the Lone Star state. He found his late enemies made warm friends and fraternized with all. He was one of the founders of the Austin Daily Statesman.

Mr. McEwen's daughter is the wife of J. E. Norton of Coquille and the latter is a member of the party with whom Mr. McEwen is camping on the beach. He likes this section of the Union and is thinking of spending the remainder of his days here in Bandon or at Coquille.

Pleasant Birthday Party

A pleasant little party was that given by Mrs. Ella Nelson last week Thursday. Plates were laid for ten. The decorations were lavender and white and the birthday cake had 16 lavender candles upon it. Many beautiful presents were received. All had an enjoyable time.

It was Mrs. Nelson's 50th birthday.

Entertained at Five Hundred

Mrs. Horace Richards entertained a number of her lady friends at an afternoon party at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Briggs in the Ocean View house on West Fourth street last Friday. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Briggs and it was as a reminder of this event that the party was held. Five hundred was the order of the afternoon and first prize, a nice plate, went to Miss Denholm. The house interior was prettily decorated with white and brown spike dahlias. Dainty refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee were served and a most pleasant afternoon was reported.

The following guests were present: Mesdames Radley, R. Johnson, Sullivan, Medden, Greenough, Geisendorfer, W. E. Crain, N. J. Crain, Garfield, Lowe, Kruse, T. Robinson, and the Misses Maud Lowe, Kate Rosa, and Christie Denholm, the latter of Portland, and Mrs. Russell of Beaver Hill.

Commercial Club Considers Elks Picnic

The Bandon Commercial Club met in regular session last Tuesday night after about a month of inactivity. The committee appointed earlier in the spring to arrange for a local entertainment for financing the Beach walk reported $50 net for the club. Warrants were ordered drawn on the treasurer to pay in full the expense of the walk.

The proposition to have moving pictures taken of the interesting Coos County scenes, Bandon Beach and incidentally the base ball game between the Bandon Elks and the Marshfield Elks was acted on favorably and a committee appointed to confer with a like committee from Marshfield. Under the auspices of that order, the film will likely be forwarded from town to town over a considerable part of the State. Finances will be arranged by the commercial club in conjunction with the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, and with the B. P. O. E. In order to confer with the Marshfield people final action on the matter was deferred to a special meeting to be held tonight, July 20th.

Service is Puck

The Recorder thinks that the mail service in Coos County is inadequate for the amount of business, and the facilities for transportation,—in other words, that it is rotten. There should be a mail up and down the river twice a day. When you mail a letter in Bandon directed to the County seat, if mailed before 2:15 P. M. it will go to Coquille that night, and the chances are that the recipient will not receive it in time to reply by the next morning's mail which leaves Coquille at 7 A. M. If you are later than 2:15 with your letter, it will remain in Bandon 23 hours and 59 minutes. If you phone the addressee that the letter is coming and ask him to be at the office to receive it, you may get the reply next day at 10:30, otherwise it will be the second day—all of course providing you mail your letter in time, otherwise it takes 3 days to get an answer from Coquille, which is located in an adjoining township, and to which several boats make the round trip at all times of the day Service with other points in the county accordingly.

Announcement has just been received that Judge Coke will begin the hearing of the Equity Term of Circuit Court at Coquille next Friday morning. In as much as the cases from Coos Bay side are for the greater part heard at the Judge's Chambers as a matter of convenience upon stipulation of the parties, it is likely that there will not be many cases heard at Coquille except those in which the parties are from this side of the County, and the term promises to be a short one.

W. J. Fry and O. T. Teaney went to Coquille last Friday to settle their difference in the Justice Court before J. J. Stanley and a jury. The matter in controversy was a note which Mr. Teaney had sold to Mr. Fry which the former claimed was intended to have been assigned without recourse, but which endorsement was omitted by mistake or inadvertence. Fry claimed that the negotiation was in the usual course of business, and without restriction, and brought suit against Teaney as an endorser who disclaimed liability. The jury found in favor of Mr. Fry. Among the witnesses on the case who went up from Bandon were Mrs. W. J. Fry, J. J. Fry, C. J. Zeek, Wm. Mott, Mrs. Teaney, and Ira Sidwell, most of them going up on the 6:30 boat in the morning and returning on the last auto stage at 6 in the evening.
