Engineers Webber of the Phoenix, King of the Elizabeth borrowed Geo. Lafaw's car Friday afternoon and started out to see the country. All went well until in the vicinity of Lampa in meeting another car they ran the machine off the grade and had to make their way home as best they could. Saturday morning Mr. Lafaw took Seller's car and some ropes and went out and got the car back on the highway, with little damage because of the incident.

Property owners of the city who have built private sewer systems are in many instances loth to connect up with the city sewers with its incidental expense. Now the authorities are considering the enforcement of the ordinance which requires the use of common sewers by property owners. Owing to the fill the new sewer on Wall street will have to be connected with immediately by property owners on that street and the council considers it unfair to compel this expense in certain districts of the city and allow other sections to exercise individual discretion in the matter.

Bach; Cantabile—Liszt; Menuet—Johann Matheson; Barcarole—Mozart; Ave Viram—Mozart.

Bid Friends Farewell

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tyler By Bandon Veterans and Relief Corps

On August 20th the Bandon G. A. R. post and W. R. C. gave a farewell dinner to Comrade A. B. Tyler and wife. The efficient force in dining room and kitchen prepared the usual good to eat dinner. Guests present were Mrs. Hite, Mrs. Erickson, Rev. C. M. Knight and wife, several members of the corps, Comrade Langley and Mrs. H. G. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler's daughter.

After full satisfaction the diners were invited up-stairs to enjoy a social hour. Comrade Tyler and wife accompany their daughter to her home in Iowa for the winter. There they will have nothing to do but to keep warm by the fire this winter and think of winter rains and summer blows in Bandon.

They received several mementoes, such as wash towels, soap, etc., all in neat little bags, handy for travelers suggesting, however, witticisms, all of which Mrs. Tyler met and parried with equal wit. She held our poet's corner in the Corps and we shall miss her.

Veterans present were eleven comrades—Henry, Faulds, Zeek, Langley, Guerber, Kennedy, Greek, Fish, Sumner and Felter. Yes and Mr. Tyler, himself. They spoke words of farewell. Rev. Knight and Mrs. Faulds. Also Mrs. Zeek spoke of the coming separation. In fact all felt the tug at the heart strings that must ever accompany such occasions.

Mrs. Shields read "Wanted—A Minister's Wife"; Mrs. Langdell recited a poem entitled "Good By" Mrs. Young told of her own uncle capturing 19 of the enemy all by himself. The officer asked him how he did it and his reply was "Oh, I just surrounded them".

This created a laugh and as faces were wearing rather sad looks, the story was what was needed.

Rev. Knight led in singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again" This dismissed the guests.

Being Corps day also the President called to order again and the usual routine of business was enacted.

Mrs. Erickson, visitor from Oakland, Lyon, No. 6, W. R. C. spoke of how happy she was to meet us again. Several things—good of the order—were discussed and all joined in a salute to the flag and we were dismissed to meet again first Friday in Sept.
