BANDON, OREGON, OCTOBER 5, 1915

NUMBER 39

HAWLEY HEADED FOR COOS COUNTY

Congressman Will Be in Bandon to Investigate Needs of City Next Week Wednesday

The following letter is self explanatory. Seeing that our senators passed lightly over our bar problem Mr. Hawley's attention should by no means directed elsewhere. Mr. Hawley has been delivering improvements to Oregon waterways since he has occupied a seat in Congress and it is not likely that he will slight Bandon this time.

Salem, Ore., October 2, 1915
Dear Sir:—
Representative W. C. Hawley has been over the larger part of the First Congressional District and is reaching every possible locality in the seventeen counties before he returns to Washington, D. C. the latter part of this month. His schedule for the next few days is as follows:
He will spend Tuesday, October 5, in Eugene, and on October 6 he will leave Eugene at 7:20 a. m. so as to arrive at Mapleton at 11:15 a. m. From Mapleton he will go to Florence and inspect the Siuslaw waterway, the proposed site upon which a coast guard or life-saving station is to be erected as provided by a law secured by the passage of one of Mr. Hawley's bills during the last Congress, and will confer with constituents relative to homestead matters.

On October 7 Mr. Hawley will leave Mapleton for Coos Bay and will remain at Marshfield, North Bend and other Coos Bay points until Monday, October 11, when he will leave Marshfield at 7:10 a. m. arriving at Myrtle Point at 8:45 a. m. and remain there until 4:15 p. m., when he will depart for Coquille. Mr. Hawley will arrive at Coquille at 4:45 p. m. October 13, and remain in that city until 1: p. m. Tuesday, October 12, when he will leave for Bandon. He will remain at Bandon until 1:00 p. m., Wednesday, October 13, when he will return to Marshfield, and on October 14, he will leave Marshfield via Gardiner to Drain and Salem.
While on the above trip, special attention will be devoted to waterway improvement and public land problems but Mr. Hawley will be glad to confer with the people on all public matters.
Truly yours,
RONALD C. GLOVER, Secretary

Editor Bandon Recorder: The rainfall for the month of September was .32 inches. Days rainy, cloudy and partly cloudy 10. Days clear 20.
The rainfall for the corresponding month was 8.46 inches, a difference of 8.14 inches less this year than last.
Respectfully,
O. WIREN,
Co-operative Observer

Judge Skipworth has reserved his decision in the matter of the Oregon avenue paving injunction.
The Charm which has been undergoing some repairs necessitating a short lay up, resumed her run this morning.

A BRACE OF FRISCO WEDDINGS

Well Known Bandonians Plight Troth in World's Fair City. A Third Splice Rumored

Two of Bandon's representative young men took brides unto themselves in San Francisco last week. Both had gone down to the California metropolis to see the fair and the union with the fair was followed as a matter of course.
Lentner Gillier, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Gallier of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Strader September 25th. The bride is a cousin of O. W. Frowbridge with whom she has made her home for a few years past.
The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Decker, 218 Walnut St., San Francisco and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Troxel of Trinity church.
The official witnesses were Miss Merlin Decker and Fred Knott. The Deckers are relatives of the bride's and only a few intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.
Both of the young people are deservedly popular in Bandon and have many friends to wish them health, wealth and prosperity in their voyage on the sea of matrimony.
It is reported that they will make their home in the Hopkins' house in which Mr. and Mrs. Roy Corson have been living and that the latter will move into Walter Donald's house with Mr. Corson's sister, Mr. Donald planning to be absent from the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Gallier arrived on the Kilburn from the south Sunday, going to Marshfield. They expected Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Laird to be on the same boat but the latter must have missed the boat and are still unaccounted for.
This brings into record bride and groom number two.
According to a telegram received here Thursday George Laird and Miss May Wasley were married at the home of the bride's parents in San Jose on the night of September 29th.
This is about all that is known of the matter here in Bandon. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Harry Pearce of this city with whom she has visited during the past year. She went back to California with Mr. and Mrs. Pearce when they went to see the fair early in the summer and has since been at San Jose.
Her many good qualities endeared her to many in this city who will rejoice to welcome her once more to our midst.
The groom, formerly chief of the city water under private ownership is popular with all.
It is reported that they will live in the Langlois house recently used by Mrs. Briggs as a family boarding house. They will live there until Mr. Laird has his ranch house ready to move into. This is the house he is building on his ranch across the river from Riverton where is also being built a large barn and a concrete silo.
Rumor has it that Clay Garoute was married last week in the city but this report up to date lacks authentication.

Students Enjoy Masquerade Ball

County Organization Formed For Basketball And Joint Debates

The Senior Masquerade party proved to be a great success. The variety of masques was remarkable and the characters were all sustained.
The prize for the most comical character was awarded to Errol Mc Nair who played the role of a "Sheeney" peddler, while Mildred Wimar, as "Uncle Josh" was the prize for the best sustained character. Gladys Gallier received a box of candy for guessing the names of the greatest number of masqueraders. Mr. Turnbull, Mr. Ervin, and Miss Rodgers acted as judges.
Games were played, and afterwards refreshments were served. The banquet was very successful and was enjoyed by every one. The prizes were announced by Professor Turnbull, and a toast was given by Miss Noren, after which songs were sung and the evening closed.
The school activities started with a vim that promise not only success in athletics but also literary achievements. The first student body meeting was held on the 22nd of last month. A president Ray Webb, secretary, Helen Thornton, Vice president, Harold Johnson, and executive officers John Moore, and Grace Gibson were elected. Another meeting was called to order the 28th of Sept. and a delegate chosen to represent Bandon at the Coquille meeting. Lester Pullen was elected as the representative.
Several very important subjects were discussed and arranged at the county meeting of delegates. The basketball schedule was arranged providing for Bandon's first game away from home with Myrtle Point and the second game with Coquille at home. A game with an outside town will be played, however before the regular schedule commences. Altogether, Bandon has a very favorable schedule providing for several games to be played at home in the middle of the season. The track meet is to be held at Myrtle Point, May 21 instead of at Marshfield.
A debating schedule was also arranged. The county debate will be held Jan. 23 and is so arranged that in case of two schools tying, instead of giving the preference to the one with the greatest number of points as was the case last year, special try-out will be used to determine the championship.
The oratorical contest will be held in Marshfield on Labor Day. The boys are limited to 10 minutes and the word limit for all speakers will be fifteen-hundred.
E. L. Coe, of North Bend, was elected president of the athletic association and H. W. Quigley, vice-president.
The meeting also provided for the formation of the Coos county Round Table which will be an organization of men teachers, to meet two or three times a year for informal discussions. Professor Turnbull was elected term

OREGON WINS IN HORTICULTURE

Premium in Fruit Department Awarded San Francisco

Oregon Building, Panama Pacific Exposition, Sept. 30.—Oregon fresh fruit is causing the thousands of visitors, and California's in particular to sit up and take notice. Southern Oregon peaches, eight to the yard, are absolutely beyond the comprehension of Californians, and those who have imagined that the whole Sebastopol country raised the only Gravenstein apples got a terrific jar when they looked upon the big display sent in by the Coquille Valley Fruit growers association at Myrtle Point. And when it comes to the other varieties of apples, Hood River Winter bananas, a five box display by Gus Miller is a beautiful a fruit as any human ever looked at. Of splendid size, perfect in contour and colored beyond the imagination of anyone not seeing them, these apples have caused experts in the horticultural building to pick them up and examine them closely to determine whether they are the real thing. Miller is the Hood River man who won the grand sweepstakes at the Pacific Land Products show last year. Even Eastern Oregon has been getting in an excellent showing of peaches, a great quantity of beautifully colored specimens coming from C. L. Willis at Brogan, Malheur county.
But it has taken Southern Oregon—Jackson county—to clean up every thing on pears. There has been a steady flow of pears from that section, all of superb fruit and it is confidently expected that this fruit is going to land the award for Southern Oregon. The only other pears in this class have come from Mosier, a single shipment of excellent D'Anjous from the East Hood River company. Southern Oregon also boasts of the first shipment of Newtown apples. A five box display is beautiful. As some may not know, the new Newtowns are green in color, a glorious green, while the ripened fruit is a beautiful golden yellow. The new fruit is now on display beside the old and it is difficult to convince visitors that the two apples are the same. The old fruit has been off the tree a year now and it is absolutely remarkable that it has suffered so little in comparison with the new fruit. It is generally conceded here that Oregon fruit can not be excelled for keeping quality.
Medal on Display
There now hangs in the Oregon section at the Palace of Horticulture an eighteen inch orange ribbon with a large rosette at the top and gold braid at the bottom, gold lettering, a silver medal and a score of names above pretentious titles, proclaiming that the Oregon horticultural exhibit is the "best most complete and most attractive installation" at the P. P. I. E. Each of the nine exhibit palaces has one of these ribbons, and it hangs at the best exhibit in that particular palace.
This is the highest honor that can be awarded and in the case of Oregon this award means more than to any other for Oregon landed this coveted ribbon with what is in comparison, an almost insignificant exhibit with

Music Pupils Make Splendid Showing

Scholars of Prof. Richards in Annual Event at Pavilion. Finished Work by Hubert Robbins And Others

The musical recital given by the pupils of Prof. A. Richards at the Dreamland pavilion last night was not patronized according to the merits either of the recital or of the cause for which he entertainment was given. Instead of a profit accruing to the city library there was a deficit to be met by the generous promoter, Prof. Richards. The expense of the evening surpassed its receipts by about five dollars.
Those who attended were given a musical treat; several of the numbers, notably those in which the professor himself appeared included music of a high order.
Special mention must be made of the higher grades and Miss Alta Hansen and Hubert Robbins gave selections of notable excellence. They essayed the more difficult music and Miss Hansen in "Reverie" and "Rustle of Spring" played most charmingly.
Mr. Robbins in the selections he interpreted surprised the audience by the talent he displayed. "Hungarian Rhapsody", his last selection as well as the last one on the program required at times, exceedingly rapid finger action but he played it without missing a fraction of a note—a most meritorious performance.
The names of those appearing during the evening appears in the program listed below. Of these special mention must be given to Miss Louise Strowbridge who especially in one piece where the melody was produced with the left hand surprised the audience with her adroic skill.
The third and fourth grade students all played with good technique.
The Misses Clarice Danielson, Carrol Garfield, Theresa Button, Gladys Jamieson, Dollie Bowman, and Master Alva Button did finely and Geo. Manciet also played very nicely.
Nor must Melford Westcoer be overlooked. He furnished the violin music for the occasion, doing it with the ease and finish for which he is acquiring a reputation.
The recital took place in one corner of the pavilion which had been lighted and decorated for the occasion. Dahlias and sweet peas entered into the decoration scheme and with a little stage scenery helped to give the baby Grand on which the musical selections were played, a home-like appearance.
Prof. Richards appeared in two numbers of the program. The first appearance was in an original composition, "My Deepest Thoughts" the piano, or central theme written by Hubert Robbins and the violin obligato and words by Prof. Richards. This was so good that the audience insisted on an encore.
"Silver Threads Among the Gold" with original variations by Prof. Richards also proved to the liking of the audience. It was an attempt to display through the medium of a familiar tune the additions which give to music its classical cast and was greeted by warm applause.
At the conclusion of the program the floor was cleared for dancing and the light fantastic was tripped to music furnished by Mr. Garten and Mrs. Forsyth and by Melford Westcoer.
Professionally considered the affair was very successful and afforded a most pleasant evening for those who attended.
Following is the program:
Reverie, ops. 34, No. 5, Clara Schult; Rustle of Spring, Sinding—Miss Alta Hansen.
Chapel in the Woods, Leo Delibes.—Miss Clarice Danielson.
Tarantella, A. Pieczonka.—Carrol Garfield.
Berceuse, Ludwig Schitte.—Miss Theresa Button.
Liebestraum: A Dream of Love, Liszt.—Hubert Robbins.
Piano Duet: March Militaire, Schubert.—Louise Strowbridge and Gladys Jamieson.
Aragonaise from the Ballet Cid, J. Massenet.—Master Alva Button.
Tenor Solo: My Deepest Thoughts, unpublished composition by Hubert Robbins, violin obligato, Melford Westcoer.—Prof. A. Richards.
Silver Threads Among the Gold, arranged for the piano with a classical treatment.—Prof. A. Richards.
Violin Solo: Four hand a companion.—Theresa Button and Clarice Danielson.
Duet: La Gracieuse Watz, Bohn.—Theresa Button and Carrol Garfield
Duet: La Grace, Bohn.—Alva Button and Dollie Bowman.
Serenade: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms, H. Engel, Ops. 4; left hand alone M. P. Mern.—Miss Louise Strowbridge.
