"CHILDREN OF EVE" COMING ATTRACTION

"Children of Eve" the leading feature at the Orpheum Theater next Monday, with Viola Dana in the title role, ranks with the best photo dramas of the day. It is an Edison production, released through the Kleino-Edison Feature Service portraying in a vivid, entertaining manner a tragedy of real life with a climax so powerful that it almost stuns. Love, impelling sin with its certain consequences, and love as a champion of a girl's dissolute life, is pictured in "Children of Eve." The great passion of life in its many vagaries, dominates the plot of this reel masterpiece.

A factory fire scene, leading to a climax so realistic as to be almost terrifying. It is in this scene that Henry Clay Madison has the fact brought home to him that "the sins of the fathers shall be visited upon the children." A dying girl, hurried and suffering, whom he had known as a once dissolute girl, discloses unwittingly, the fact that she is his own daughter whom he never knew existed. If the agony of that discovery was not sufficient, there was the added fact that he knew this dying creature had cherished a pure girl which he had thwarted by deceit and trickery. There was not room left to him to solve he might have found in the fact had he known it, that the girl's mother his sweetheart of younger days, had declined to marry him because she feared it might ruin her. This and other scenes in "Children of Eve" grip the heart and leave an impression that time may fly but never efface.

It may be mentioned that is preparing this fine spectacle there was destroyed a five-story brick factory building erected especially for this purpose. This picture will be shown at the Orpheum Theater, Monday, April 2.

Another big feature of Saturday night's program will be a vaudeville stunt featuring Jackson and Florence in a comedy skit, introducing singing, dancing, talking, and character vaudeville. This will be one of the best acts ever seen in the county.
