Woud Publish Names
Of Roose Importers

Officer Hickman is making a wide campaign in fa-or of the publication of the names of all the persons who receive boats here under the provisions of the State law as one of its peaks. He says that not only the night ships came in here on one night and that some of them were for people who intended to use them in violation of the spirit, if not the letter of the law. This is understandable that lots more intoxicating liquor is coming into Coquille without the provisions of the state prohibition law than good before it went into effect.
Failing to observe these rules so carefully guarded importation. The marshals thinks the names of every one making the oath to get his imported home at the depot were very few, and that unlawfully to each license to buy it given its away in violation of the law.—Tribune.

Supt. Miller Goes To High Port Office

The Coos Bay Times prints the following account of the promotion of W. F. Miller, supersintendent of the C. B. and E. railroad:

W. F. Miller, for five
C. B. and E. railroad, under the provisions of the Southern Pacific, has accepted the appointment as assistant general leaves for Portland Monday to acquaint himself with his division, though his appointment is not in effect until June 1.

The promotion is a particularly good one and Mr.
Miller is no doubt many congratulations his friends. He has been here years, coming at the
the same time C. J. Willis was in charge here and has become very well known. No cessor has as yet appointed to take Mr. Miller's place.

Mr. Miller will be under
H. A. Hinshaw, general attorney for the territories north of Ashland, and will have his headquarters in Eugene

Teacher Resigns After Punishing Boy Pupil

Miss Ina Voorhis, teacher in the Mountain district, has resigned in request of the directors.

Last week Miss Voorhis told Mr. Abe Hardenbrook for some infraction of the rules of the school. After the severely that the unpopular to the legs, it is said, until the ship was a mass of broken from the knees up, and turned back to sea and land. Upon investigation the directions per-tended the teacher to resign, and it led to that.—Global.

Bandon Man May Open
Store At Port Orford

Gene Schetter was a Port Orford visitor from Bandon the day last week.
Mr. Schetter did not make a plain known, yet it is genery and good that he expects to open one of the large stores in the early future. Mr. Sidwell, of the Bandon, accompanied
Mr. Schetter.—Tribune.
