HUGHES THE UNKNOWN

It is a remarkable compliment to Hughes, or else a terrible commentary upon the presidential possibilities of the G. O. P., that a man whose attitude on public affairs was little known whose public life has been conspicuous but not brilliant, whose public service has been attended with a large degree of opportune circumstances, but never tested in adversity, the only true test—and whose legal accomplishments stand alone strong, but not brightly; has without effort, or endeavor upon his part been placed in the position of the leadership of that party. His future actions and declarations will demonstrate the wisdom or folly of the choice, but it also demonstrates the terrible state of the near-direlict party, which for a chance has taken a head long leap looking. Mr. Hughes is to be lauded for the compliment in opinion of the Chicago he is a politician and the first magnitudinal demonstration that the next six months will be most difficult for the American voter to wonder, a thing of vanity, of duty, impelled by political net, resigning, requiring members be made down to accept a year tenure of government, never justifies the an equal or greater to be our president, or any opponent of our present, we hope that he will be up to the standard expected of him.

MORRISON FILES FOR MAYOR

A nomination of not less than twenty persons nominating Harry Morrison, together with his acceptance, has been filed with the City Clerk. The present administration

Don's policy has been to build upon the future, and to build well, believing that results obtained justify the past and the policy. Morrison's policy it appears will be to count the cost, and rather build not at all except as the present not the future can afford. The issue is clean cut, square-toed and well footed. The opposing candidates are friends, but each sincerely opposed to the other's policy, and the campaign which will be brief, less than ten days, in fact, will be entirely friendly and devoid of personalities, and entirely upon the merits of the issues joined. Unlike jurymen whose minds are open to conviction, upon the merits of the case presented before them, the voters of the City of Bandon, are already well acquainted and reasonably well informed as to the City's business, and little could be said to change the minds of them either pro or con.

It has been heralded by the press over the county that the preliminary hearing of the J. M. Young matter was a secret one. This is incorrect. The defendant appeared at about the hour of two o'clock at the office of the Justice with his attorney, and the complaint was read to him, he was served with a copy, informed of his attorney and the complaint was read to him he was served with a copy informed of his statutory rights in such cases, he waived preliminary hearing, and the order was made that he will be held to the Grand Jury in the sum of $500, the bond to provide that he would surrender himself to custody should the defendant die. The entire proceeding required less than five minutes, and was in accordance with the direct mandate of the Oregon Constitution, was public and open to any person who desired to attend. No witnesses were placed on the stand and no testimony was taken. Some voluntary statements by the members of the Young family, were made, and an affidavit of Maude Young, was taken at the request of L. A. Liljeqvist, and that was all. When Condas died Young surrendered, and was taken to Coquille to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

It is said that Roosevelt will retire from politics. The men who hatched up that item is some worthy member of the Annanias Club. Roosevelt like Bryan will be in politics until he is dead.

Since Hughes and Fairbanks both wear beards, it appears to be a campaign of whiskers against the field.

FLAG DAY OBSERVED

Under the auspices of the W. R. C. fitting Flag Day observations were held in Bandon, Wednesday, the feature of which was the parade in the evening, in which a large number of children, as well as many grown people, took part. Each one who marched in the parade carried a flag and patriotic songs were sung. Several decorated automobiles were in line. Throughout the day Old Glory was on display in all parts of the city.

THE DANCES AT DOYLE'S PAVILION will be discontinued until further notice.

J. R. Peters was in from the black sand mines up the coast yesterday morning.

Mr. Bradley, of the Bradley Candy company, of Marshfield, spent the week-end here calling on the trade and shaking hands with his many acquaintances.

The Rev. Joseph Knotts and wife and child stopped over in Bandon today on their way to Port Orford, where they will have a week's outing. They visited with Rev. C. Mayne Knight and family.

The Roseburg Boy Scouts broke camp on Johnson's beach the latter part of the week and started on the long hike home, going by way of the Bay to Myrtle Point and then over the Middle Fork road.

Bulletin No. 3

Why Not Face the Facts About Armor Competition?

To the People:

The policy of the United States Government for many years has made real competition in armor-making ineffective.

The Government might have asked the three armor plants for bids and let the entire tonnage to the lowest bidder. That would have made competition effective.

The result of such a course would have been to drive two of the three manufacturers out of business, and leave the country with facilities of only one plant in time of need.

The Government in fact has always asked for bids from the three manufacturers, but no matter what the price quoted, each year's business was divided among them.

Armor makers serve but one customer—the Government, just as a public utility serves but one customer—a community.

The solution of the public utility problem is regulation of rates.

The solution of the armor problem is for the Government to fix the price.

We voluntarily agree to accept any price fixed by the Federal Trade Commission. Isn't acceptance of that offer better than the destruction of an industry built solely to serve the Government?

"A pipeful of Tuxedo is a wonderfully pleasant form of tobacco enjoyment, mild and soothing."

Scores of Big "Movie" Men—

Producers as well as actors, are constant smokers and outspoken friends of Tuxedo. It's just the soothing, restful, refreshing smoke men of their nerve-racking vocation need. Nothing calms and comforts a hustler like a pipe of mild, cool, sweet Tuxedo.

Tuxedo

Tuxedo is aged from three to five years in wooden hogsheads to make it mellow and sweet flavored. But the thing that takes out all the bite and harshness and makes Tuxedo so bland and gentle that it won't hurt the most sensitive tongue or throat, is the famous and exclusive "Tuxedo process."

One week's trial of Tuxedo will show you.

Hawaiian Music to be Feature of Big Chautauqua Program

Music From Islands Across the Pacific to Add Greatly to Big Program Engaged are including many great attractions here during its week of big daily programs. But of all these none will be received with such great enthusiasm as the one to be given by Kekuanihewa. This is the company that played in the original "Bird of Paradise" company and scored success. In the tour of the 100 largest cities of the United States that was made by this desired Kekuanihewa's Hawaiians to be the most musical and accurate in their reproduction of the music. No other company has played the beautiful, soothing and wistful melodies of the Hawaiian. The Chautauqua has secured a big "scoop" in securing them for a full concert.
