PRESIDENT WILSON

The Democratic party goes before the American people with a candidate whose wisdom and ability in a period of unparalleled storm and stress entitle him to support in the name of patriotism which dwarfs all narrow partisanship. His record of achievement has won the applause of his friends, the admiration of his political foes, and the gratitude of the nation at large.

He has given the country a currency system which on the eve of a national upheaval enabled finance and industry to stand unshaken. What the conditions would have been under Republican rule may easily be imagined by recalling the disaster of 1907. He has proved himself a better pilot in a storm than the Republicans in years of profound tranquillity.

Under his guidance a Democratic Congress has written upon the statute books a tariff law which has brought prosperity to every class of the American people. The familiar shibboleths of the Old Guard, the prophecies of impending calamity have become the butt of mockery and derision in the light of cold facts. The noisy forecasts of evil are drowned in the song of the harvest and the hum of the loom.

He has passed unscathed through a crisis in international affairs that would have seared the soul and paralyzed the mind of a weaker character. Charged with the welfare of a hundred million people, whose destiny was exposed to all the cross-currents which blew from the earth's four corners, he has maintained peace while giving the world a new and inspiring vision of the moral grandeur of the nation, jealous of its honor, but devoted to the interests of mankind.

In the highest sense he is the embodiment of a splendid Americanism.

Into the very fiber of the nation he has woven the traditions of the republic. He loves peace well enough for it, if need be. He is clearly to all the eyes of the New and Old World that the United States covets nothing legitimately its own. In his hands he has shown that the people ask nothing and care for nothing except to work out their own destinies under the free institutions which are their peculiar heritage.

In all the candidate of the hour there is no visionary, no idealist. He is a sturdy, practical man. He has taken the safety of the nation as his motto. He has shown that peace is not a dream, but a reality, and that the forces of the future will be ready to hand, waiting only to be quickened into action by the word of command.

Strong, alert, tried and approved by experience, he has won the confidence of the people, and this will be their verdict at the polls.

VICTOR MURDOCK LEADS CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM

FIERY INSURGENT FROM KANSAS TO BE ONE OF HEADLINERS DURING WEEK OF JULY 12-17—WORLD WAR TO BE ONE OF HIS TOPICS.

Victor Murdock is coming to Chautauqua! This announcement should be of double edged interest to every one. In the first place Murdock is the whip of the Insurgency Movement, a political innovation that has put a crimp in the "let well enough alone" policy of standpatters. He is one of the three, possibly four conspicuous figures in our national politics, who are really doing something to give purpose to the burning issues of the day. In the second place, Mr. Murdock comes direct from the several centers of the world war. Those who are reading his remarkable war articles in Collier's will readily understand that what he has to say of the conflict of the nations will be printed. Personal observation has equipped him to treat the subject fairly. His keen, substantiated analysis and conclusion of a situation that appears only as an incomprehensible chaos to the outsider, is perhaps the sanest contribution on the aspects of the world war, yet presented to the American public.

Victor Murdock is the fiery insurgent from Kansas, and a zealous advocate of the interests of the plain people. As a speaker he has the power and magnetism of the born leader of men which he is. Murdock is a big man in a big way. He is a stimulant. Terse, crisp, comical, colloquial, earnest, dramatic, spontaneous in thought and expression, Victor as you never thought could be is yours to command quick as you buy some Prince Albert and fire-up a pipe or a home-made cigarette!

Such tobacco enjoyment

Prince Albert gives you every tobacco satisfaction your smoke-appetite ever hankered for. That's because it's made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

has a flavor as different as it is delightful. You never tasted the like of it! And that isn't strange, either.

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome posied and half-pound tin humidors—and that corking fine pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such clever trim—always!

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. A. a try-out certainly have a big surprise and a lot of enjoyment coming their way as soon as they invest in a supply. Prince Albert tobacco will tell its own story!
