FOURTH OF JULY.
Precalculated Oregon Arms to Arrange for Picnic and Celebration.

Citizens of Flora creek met May 30th, pursuant to call, at the side school house to take into consideration the advisability of having a picnic and celebration on the coming Fourth day of July.

On motion of W. H. Avellis, J. H. Upson was appointed chairman, H. A. G. Stitt, secretary, and A. C. Cox was appointed secretary to bring the chair to prepare grounds.

On motion of W. H. Avellis a firework committee was appointed.

W. H. Avellis, P. Nelson and E. M. Blackerby said committee.

On motion of J. T. Stitt the chair was directed to appoint a marshal of the day. N. C. Lorentson was appointed marshal.

On motion of J. E. Hawkins, A. H. Thrift was appointed President of the day.

On motion of J. E. Hawkins, A. H. Thrift, the chair appointed a committee on programs for the day, composed of J. E. Hawkins, W. B. Bickel, Charles Langhois and H. A. Hawkins elected.

On motion of J. E. Hawkins, H. J. Upson was appointed chairman of the day.

The firework committee appointed Mr. W. H. Avellis and W. B. Bickel as committee on music.

On motion adjourned sine die.

J. H. Upson, Chairman.
H. A. Hawkins, Secretary.

GONE BELOW.—Mr. Sam Bernstein of San Francisco, who has been in these parts some weeks settling claim against the Barnum Lumber Company went below by way of Coos Bay Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Robert Burnham. Mr. Bernstein was signally successful in his endeavors to satisfactorily settle claim against the company.

SURTIES.—W. P. Wright, who has had many Government contracts for surveying in this county, passed down Saturday with his party on his way to the Upper Rogue river and Bower creek country where he has contracted.

STICKS ROSSMAN.—It is stated that last Friday night some Chinamen robbed the shite houses at the Coosky mission this side of Rogue, of about $600 in cash.

Fourth of July comes on Saturday.