BANDON DRUG COMPANY

County Briefs

A four point buck deer was recently captured while swimming across the bay near Empire.

The City of Coquille has received the $30,000 cash for its issue of refunding bonds and is now cashing its outstanding warrants.

Coos county Greeks have received notification that the Greek consul at Portland will pay their passage to their native land if they will return to that country and enlist.

Residents of the South Slough district salvaged the Northwest hull, where it rests on the beach at mussel point. It is said over $150 worth of copper and brass was secured.

Judge J. S. Coke of Coos county, arrived here a few days ago and left immediately for Portland. He will return to Eugene in a few days to hold a session of the circuit court.—Roseburg Review.

A. D. McCulloch of Powers is said to have been robbed of $94, in a Marshfield rooming house, Sunday. Jim Thorne, an Indian who was with McCulloch, is accused by him of the theft.

District Attorney Liljeqvist has been asked by Attorney General Brown to make an estimate for the information of the county court of the sums necessary next year in enforcing the prohibition law.

"Rattlesnake Jim," a peculiar character of the homo fraternity, is on the Bay and may visit Bandon in a few days. Jim is said to go bare-footed, wears a gunny sack shirt and a red bandana handkerchief wrapped about his head, under his hat.

Increase of the water reserve for fire protection from 5,000 to a quarter million gallons is being considered by the North Bend city council, and a committee appointed to take the matter up with the water company.

A band of 2,100 head of sheep that Messrs. Taylor Dement and Wm. Kolbrook have purchased in Curry county, passed through Myrtle Point this week. The sheep are being taken to Roseburg, where they will be delivered to Mr. Kolhagen, stock dealer.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

There are nine school districts outside of the cities of the county that are now doing high school work, according to County Superintendent R. E. Baker. These are Parkersburg, Riverton, Randolph, Beaver Hill, Catching Inlet, Bridge, Powers and Coos river.

One of the largest deer ever killed in these parts, so far as we can learn, was bagged by Clarence Gould of Allegany a few days ago. It was a four-point buck, and after the entrails had been removed weighed, with the head and legs on, 225 pounds.—Coos Bay News.

A deer was killed within the city limits of Empire a few days ago. It came walking down one of the streets; a woman saw the animal, and rustling a gun, took a shot at it but missed; a little farther down the street another person began cannonading, the third one securing the prize.

Passengers coming in to Coos Bay on the Florence stage Thursday afternoon had an exciting experience. The waves were dashing high and struck the autos several times, forcing the passengers to climb on the top of the seats to escape a real salt water bath. About 22 people are said to have made the trip that day.

Plans are being prepared for another contract on the Coquille-Marshfield road. The piece to be built is from Davis Inlet to Coaledo, about 4 1-2 miles. The road will have to be cleared and graded, costing about $35,000. The officials hope to have a portion of the work completed this year.

Miss Goldie Riggs was elected Carnival Queen of the North Bend Bridge Carnival and is serving in that capacity this week. Miss Lillian Henderson, a former Bandon girl, was in the race for the honors, and up until a few hours before the voting closed, was the leading candidate.

Stephen Lapp, one of the oldest settlers of Coos county, died at Marshfield a few days ago. Deceased came to Port Orford in the early days as a member of the Baltimore company. He moved to the Coquille valley in 1855, going to the South slough section in 1865 where he engaged in the logging business.

Coos county merchants who formerly gave trading stamps are interested in a recent decision. Trading stamps have a legal right to live. The trading stamp law passed by the 1915 legislature was declared unconstitutional in a decision of the Multnomah circuit court, and carried into the Federal court.

The diphtheria epidemic at Bunker Hill, Marshfield, has so alarmed the people of Eastside, that the city council of that municipality has placed an ordinance on record to be voted on in the general election there soon, which provides that the city bond for $50,000 for a municipal water plant. Eastside has no water system at present.

W. P. Murphy of Marshfield has made the announcement that he will erect a new $7,000 concrete building at North Bend on the ground formerly occupied by the Joy theatre and other buildings destroyed in the big fire there of a few weeks ago. The lower floor will be occupied by a theatre and the upper will be fitted up as office rooms.

Tracklaying on the Willamette-Pacific has been completed from Eugene as far west and south as the upper end of Tillcoos lake, seven miles from the Siuslaw bridge. Good progress has been made with the work since it started south from the Siuslaw. Tracklaying will be rushed five miles further south, where it will be delayed a short time until some trestle work is completed.

Sunday Closing Situation

The law prohibiting the keeping open of all stores except drug stores, bakeries, hotels and restaurants on Sunday has been in effect for the past 50 years. In some places they have recently begun enforcing the law. An official at this place says that it will be unlawful to keep open in future on Sundays. The owners of the stores will not be notified to close, but every one keeping open will do so at his own risk, and in doing so, under the law, he lays himself open to a fine at any time.—Coquille Herald.

No Terminal Rates for the Bay

According to an interview appearing in the Coos Bay Times, Coos Bay can expect no terminal rates from the Southern Pacific until deep water ships in the foreign trade, and many of them, actually come into the harbor and tie up at the docks. Such is the thunderclap news delivered by G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, while at Marshfield the latter part of the week. He said that the Interstate Commerce commission forbids such rates where the railroad is not in actual competition with overseas freighters. Marketing of Coos county coal will be encouraged as much as possible, said Mr. Luce.

TOBACCO NOT A SUCCESS

Greeks Find This Section is Too Damp for Curing the Weed.

The producing of tobacco in the Coos Bay section which was attempted by several Greeks who understand the business, has not proved to be a marked success. The tobacco will grow all right but it does not cure well here. The Greeks rented the Gage farm at Allegany and there made the experiment with the weed. They understand the culture of the plant and they say that some of the tobacco grew six feet high but on account of the rainy weather it does not cure well. The only way that it could be handled would be to have a dry kiln and it would not pay to build one for the amount of the plant they could produce.—Coos Bay Times.

CHECKS NO GOOD

Officers Said to Be Looking for J. R. Fish of Bandon.

The Coos Bay Times says: Officers are searching for Joseph R. Fish of Bandon who is wanted for cashing at least two no-fund checks in Marshfield. The man is said to have gone out by way of Roseburg and no trace of him has been found. "On September 26 Fish bought a ticket over the Myrtle Point and Roseburg auto line and tendered a $14 check on the Bank of Bandon in payment. He left for Roseburg and the checks came back marked 'no funds.' According to the officers Fish also cashed a similar check with a Marshfield saloon. In the directory Fish is rated in Bandon as an auto driver. He is known here and his friends state their belief that he will return to face the charge against him. He is a married man, having a wife in Bandon."

THE MARSEILLAISE.

Ye sons of freedom, wake to glory!
Hark, hark! What myriads bid you rise!

Your children, wives and grand-sires hoary,
Behold their tears and hear their cries.

Shall hateful tyrants, mischief breeding,
With hireling hosts, a ruffian band,

Affright and desolate the land,
While peace and liberty lie bleeding?

To arms! To arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe.

March on, march on! All hearts resolved
On victory or death.

O Liberty, can man resign thee
Once having felt thy generous flame?

Can dungeons, bolts or bars confine thee
Or whips thy noble spirit tame?

Too long the world has wept, bewailing
That falsehood's dagger tyrants wield.

But freedom is our sword and shield,
And all their arts are unavailing.

To arms! To arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe.

March on, march on! All hearts resolved
On victory or death.

Are the first and only corn flakes that are "good to eat" without milk, cream or sugar,

Try some fresh from the package, and at once you get a wonderful true corn flavour—vastly different from that of the ordinary "corn flakes" you may have had.

Notice the little pearl-like "puffs" on each flake—a characteristic that is distinctive; also that when cream or milk is added they don't mush down, but keep their body and appetizing crispness.

There's a ROYAL TREAT in every package of
