

LIFE'S a game, and we are all players in it, to paraphrase Shakespeare. And the best two cards in any hand are illustrated above—first, the PAY ENVELOPE; second, the BANK BOOK. Without the pay envelope there can be no bank book. Without the bank book the pay envelope is robbed of its FULL VALUE. The BANK BOOK is the LOGICAL, SENSIBLE SUPPLEMENT of the PAY ENVELOPE.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watkins, Friday, an 8 pound boy.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Philpot, Sunday night, a boy.

C. E. Broadbent, a Coos Bay cheese man, was one of the passengers on the Elizabeth for San Francisco.

Mrs. V. N. Smith went to Lampa Monday, where she will take a position at the Perkins' ranch.

Erwin Hamila of Roseburg was in Bandon Sunday. Mr. Hamila made the trip on a motorcycle. He formerly resided in this city.

Mrs. Bertha Stillwell is said to have sold her ranch at Four Mile to George Morgan. The property consists of 120 acres.

William Emery of Marshfield was a visitor at the Lee Barrows home the first of the week. Mr. Emery is a brother-in-law to Mrs. Barrows.

H. D. Jackson and J. W. Mast left Saturday in the latter's car for Portland where they will attend Grand Lodge as delegates from the local branch, Knights of Pythias.

Mrs. George Gensendarter, Mrs. L. W. Turnbull and W. J. Sweet were the new members appointed on the library board by Mayor Geo. P. Topping.

John Shields and Geo. E. Wilson made a trip in the latter's auto to the Sixes country Sunday for a deer hunt and few hours fishing. It is said they had exceptionally good luck.

Will Lundy and family and Dr. Giles' family enjoyed an auto trip to Bandon Sunday, going in the former's car and spending some time on the beach.—North Bend Tide.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Clinton of Lampa were among the lower river people who attended the big celebration at North Bend the latter part of the week.

Mrs. H. P. Morrison, delegate of the local chapter, Pythian Sisters, to the Grand Lodge convention at Portland this week, left Sunday for the vention from each of the subordinate lodges.

H. C. Pullen, who has recently returned from a trip to eastern Oregon and points in Washington, was here from Bandon the latter part of the week on a visit with relatives.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

N. Nieman of the Longston Construction company of Coquille, was in Bandon Tuesday night on business before the city council pertaining to the purchase of improvement bonds. The sale was completed and he returns home today.

There will be a sheet and pillow slip dance at the Doyle pavilion this coming Saturday night. The management state that order is going to be maintained near the hall and that anyone coming with a different view is not going to receive a very enthusiastic welcome.

Cash Goodman and wife of Prosper, were on the Bay for a few days recently. Mr. Goodman was a resident of Arcville, now Bay City, thirty-five years ago, and while in Marshfield last week was pleased to meet a few of his old-time friends.—Coos Bay News.

Fred Colgrove is chief of police pro tem. Officer F. A. Holman having succumbed to the lure of the salmon fishing industry. The chief's vacation will probably last a week or so longer as it is said he is having considerable luck. In the meantime Mr. Colgrove is filling the position like a veteran cop.

Henry Hess is reported to have purchased the Noah Davison ranch on lower Two Mile the latter part of the week. He has already taken possession of the property and moved out from Bandon with his family. The ranch consists of 160 acres and is one of the fine holdings of that section.

Mayor Topping of Bandon was among those who drove to North Bend last week to attend the big good roads meeting. Mayor Topping has always been a consistent booster for better roads and doesn't expect to lose any of his enthusiasm until the hope becomes a reality.—Marshfield Record.

Representative C. R. Barrow of Coquille will speak at the Commercial club meeting, October 26th. His address will include a discussion of the land grant question, legislative and other matters of public interest. It is planned to make special effort to have as large attendance as possible at the meeting that evening.

Clay Garoutte returned this week from San Francisco, where he had been visiting the fair for a week or so. Mr. Garoutte says the attractions are fine and well worth seeing. During his absence in the south some of his friends became possessed with the idea he had become a Benedict; but the report is laughingly denied.

K. B. Wesleder, local moving picture man, was over on the Bay the latter part of the week and the forefront of this week taking pictures of the carnival scenes, at Shoreacres, and of the big Southern Pacific bridge. The scenes are said to be excellent and that the one of the big bridge is of added interest as it will show the Adeline Smith passing through. Mr. Wesleder will start work immediately developing the films.

The W. H. Donald family leave on the Elizabeth for San Francisco, from whence they will take the train east for Baraboo, Wisconsin. They were called east on account of the illness of Mr. Donald's parents and have decided to remain in that section for a year or so. Mr. Donald has been a resident of Bandon for the past nine years, making one trip east for a visit during that time. He has been with the Bandon Steam Laundry and the Bandon Garage Co. for the past year.

A. J. Quate returned Monday from southern California, where he went about two three months ago from Fossil, Oregon, where the Quates spent the summer. He was in that section of California at the time of the recent earthquake. Mr. Quate states that the shocks were severe and that but few accurate reports were sent outside. At Calexico but one business house remained standing. All brick structures fell and frame buildings were twisted until doors could not be opened or closed. Business conditions are about the same in California as in Bandon.

S. E. Hines and George Way returned Sunday from the upper Sixes river country where they had been hunting and camping. Mr. Hines reports a fine trip and plenty of venison. They were detained longer than intended by the accidental death of a foreigner, called "Moss." The man was working for a homesteader at the head of Sixes river. The men were watching a large tree they had just cut through fall, when the big timber struck a pole about ten inches in diameter, lying with one end across a stump. The blow threw the pole end for end down the hill, striking Moss on the side of the head, killing him instantly. His partner had a narrow escape from the same timber, it missing him only a few inches.

An Extra Large Rutabaga
Dippel & Wolverton's office window this week contains a large rutabaga from the J. L. Foster garden. The big "turnip" looks as though it would just about make a tight fit in a five pound lard pail, and must weigh five or six pounds.

S. J. Mann and guest, Dr. Smith of San Francisco, left Tuesday for the Rogue river country on a short hunting expedition. They intended going back into the wilds away from the settlements where deer are said to be plentiful, and will probably return with a goodly supply of jerky.

Columbus Day Observed
October 12th was observed as a holiday by local banks—and many could not recall just what particular holiday it was. October 12 marks the 423rd anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America. It has been designated as a national holiday and monuments were unveiled in various parts of the United States in commemoration of the day.

Chris Rasmussen Grows the Spuds
Chris Rasmussen was displaying a few choice potatoes this week which were raised in his garden at the Queen Anne cottage. The potatoes were of the Pride of Multnomah variety; they were perfectly formed and of exceptional size. The lot on display consisted of four potatoes, total weight of which was 6 3/4 pounds.

Library Building Rent Lowered
In approving the usual monthly bills at the adjourned council meeting Tuesday night the city fathers noted a reduction in the library building rental, from $16 to $12 per month. John Nielson, owner of the building made the cut voluntarily, and without the knowledge of the council. Mr. Nielson's generosity is appreciated by the library board, who will probably use the surplus thus accruing for purchasing needed volumes.

Moore-Roseburg Nuptials
Miss Ethel E. Moore and Carl Gustav Roseburg were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Fisher, Saturday evening, Rev. C. Mayne Knight, officiating. The guests were Mrs. Ella Rae, Mrs. Ella Briggs Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hudson and J. A. Hemminger. Following the wedding a light luncheon was enjoyed. The bride is a teacher in the Bandon schools. The groom was formerly with the Bandon life saving crew, but is at present employed at the Laird ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Roseburg have a host of friends who wish them happiness.

Who Belled the Buzzard?
During their recent hunting trip to the Rogue river section R. V. Leep and A. Garfield saw a buzzard wearing a sheep bell. They were busy cutting up a venison when the first sounds of the bell were heard, apparently coming from the heavens. A close look around dispelled the mystery—a large buzzard with the bell fastened around his neck occupied a nearby snag. They later told other members of the party, but were at first supposed to be joking. It is not known where or when the buzzard was belled; but a report published at Florence a few months ago was to the effect a large buzzard, sporting a bell, was in that vicinity, and it is thought perhaps the one seen by Messrs. Garfield and Leep is the same bird.

Sid Williams, manager of the Estabrook company, is over at Marshfield this week on business for the company.

Celebrate Golden Wedding
Archdeacon Wm. Horsfall and wife, of Bandon, were in town last week, and on Wednesday celebrated their golden wedding at the residence of their son, Dr. William Horsfall and family. They received the congratulations of a large number of warm friends. Mr. Horsfall was married in Lancashire, England, to Miss Sarah Howard, October 5, 1855. They came to America in 1879, and following his graduation at the Theological seminary in Kansas City, he was in charge of Episcopal churches in Kansas. From Kansas they moved to Miles, Montana, where he was missionary for the Yellowstone district and rector of Emmanuel church at Miles. In 1888 they moved to Oregon, and Mr. Horsfall became missionary for the coast district from Lane to the southern Curry county line. Marshfield was his headquarters for 22 years and five years ago they moved to Bandon to reside. Archdeacon Horsfall and wife made hosts of friends throughout this portion of the coast country, and the church membership increased to a considerable extent as a result of his conscientious devotion to the numerous and varied duties which his position imposed on him. His health and that of Mrs. Horsfall is remarkably good, and the wish of those who know them and who appreciate their many good qualities, is that they will live to enjoy many more happy returns of their wedding anniversary.—Coos Bay News.
