"Safety First"

--is the slogan
which means much.

You who consider it most essential in your avocations should also consider it in the same light when making investments or purchases.

You who are compelled to purchase Men's and Boys' Wearing apparel, and to you who are contemplating Xmas shopping in those lines, consider the merchants who have given you reliable merchandise and courteous treatment.

If we have been among that number, I will greatly appreciate your calling again this season, assuring you that we will make every effort to serve you in the best possible way.

And to those who have never called, we will extend to you an invitation to come in and inspect the different lines of merchandise we offer, and secure prices.

From now until the Holiday season closes, we will quote in our local papers from time to time some of the values we are offering.

Yours for a Safe Year,

J. Ira Sidwell
