A FOOL THERE WAS

THEDA BARA
The Vampire Woman

By Porter Emerson Browne

A picturization of the Kipling Poem and the Great Burnes-Jones Painting.

THE VAMPIRE

A vivid theme that deals with a phase of life that will appeal to all classes.

"A Fool There Was, and he made his prayer
(Even as you and I)
To a rag and a bone and a hank of hair"—

How many are there who do not know these lines? A great drawing card and a great production. All-Star cast, including Theda Bara and Edward Jose.

OUT OF THE RACE

The Devil sat by the lake of fire on a pile of sulphur keels; his head was bowed upon his breast, his tail between his legs; a look of shame was on his face—the sparks dripped from his eyes—he had sent his resignation to the throne up in the skies. "I'm down and out," the Devil said, and he said it with a sob, "there are others that outclass me, and I want a quit my job. Hell isn't in it with him; he's a has-been and a piker, and here I resign; one ammunition naker, with his bloody shot and hell, knows more about damnation than all theimps of hell. Give my ob to Kaiser William, or to the Russian Czar, King George, J. P. Morgan, or some such man of war. I hate to leave the old home, the spot I love so well, but I feel that I'm not up-to-date in the art of running hell."

And the Devil spit a squirt of steam at a brimstone bumblebee, and muttered that he guessed he'd go and hunt up young John D.—Ex.

Mrs. C. B. Zeek of Bandon, who was here last Saturday attending the meeting of the Panama grange, is interested in the proposed home for aged mothers that the Woman's Relief corps of Oregon contemplates erecting in this state as soon as the money can be raised. There are 13 corps in the state with a membership of approximately 3,000 and Mrs. Zeek says "what a fine start we would have toward that building fund if each member donated one dollar." She would like to see all the corps in Coos county take hold and help raise the fund.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

You have read about Theda Bara, the Vampire. See her at the Grand next Friday, November 26th, in "A FOOL THERE WAS," a tremendous feature in five acts.

Films Are Discontinued The Mutual Film Corporation of Portland supplying the "Diamond from the Sky" pictures to the show houses of the county, have wired Manager Sellmer of the Grand that Marshfield and North Bend theatres had cancelled the films and it would be impossible to supply Bandon alone with this serial story.

"Immediate action has been taken," says Mr. Sellmer, "to arrange for a feature program for Tuesdays with the General Film company of Portland. The films will consist of a three or four part special feature production and patrons who are in the habit of coming to the show on

More Than 15,000,000 Visitors Have Beheld Wonders of Jewel City. Art Smith, Famous Bird Man, Performs Daily In Closing Month—800,000 Feet of Free Motion Picture Film Shown Daily on Exposition Grounds.

THE last is best of all the game." This is the principle by which the Panama-Pacific International exposition has worked out the problem of its program for the months of October and November with the view in mind of keeping up the public interest and drawing record attendances until the very last minute of the very last day, Dec. 4.

Thus far over 15,000,000 visitors have clicked the turnstiles that grant entrance to the Jewel City. It is the desire of the Exposition directorate to be organist, will play his daily program at noon in Festival Hall, and for the modest sum of 10 cents this world renowned musician and genius may be heard in classic score.

Instead of thinning out the attendance the last weeks have seemed to gain, owing, no doubt, to President Moore's proclamation that under no circumstances will the exposition last one minute after midnight on Dec. 4. Eastern and middle western travelers to the exposition can avail themselves of low round trip rates until Nov. 30.

ART SMITH, WHO WILL FLY EVERY NIGHT AT THE EXPOSITION.

ART SMITH, the greatest master of the air in the direction and control of an aeroplane, dates his return to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition from Nov. 7. He will remain in San Francisco until the close of the Exposition, Dec. 4. The boy aviator, who is barely twenty-one, holds the world's record for making twenty-three consecutive loops in the air in his aeroplane. His homecoming will be celebrated by tens of thousands.

able to boast of 18,000,000 by the time it has taken its place in the world of happy memories.

For that reason all sorts of special days with elaborate and entertaining programs have been arranged. Something new will happen every day. Many of these events will take place in the beautiful courts of the Exposition. Some of them will take place in the exhibit palaces themselves, where everything is and always has been free. The various state buildings have also planned days and affairs which will enliven the social atmosphere throughout the Exposition "dog days."

One of the leading attractions in the exhibit palaces and state buildings is the moving pictures which are shown every day in the week from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the evening. Eight hundred thousand feet of film are shown daily in these free moving picture theaters, films which in their educative influence answer the purpose of four years' academic study. Every department of living and of science has been taken up and thoroughly exploited. Manufactures and industries, such as the making of shoes and paper, the cutting of timber and its subsequent manufacture into artistic furniture, the making of steel, the mining of iron, gold, silver, copper, shipping and commerce are detailed at length on films of unusual clearness and interest.

Every state in the Union is shown at its best. Magnificent mountain and valley scenery, torrential rivers, cascades and ocean shores, automobile drives and railroad trips constitute a scenic tour that is incomparable.

Eastern and middle western visitors are now flocking to San Francisco for the various live stock events which are scheduled to last until the end of the period. At the close of the Society Horse Shows, Oct. 15, the cattle, sheep and hog shows were begun, to be followed by the poultry and dog shows. From all over the country agriculturists will send their way to Congress Hall at the Exposition, where there will be congresses and conventions with lectures, stereopticons and moving pictures, combining to form a college in agriculture, stock raising and horticulture which no farmer can afford to miss.

There will be aviation exhibits every day in the future, as there have been in the past. At present Charles Niles and Silvio Petrosini are taking turns in affording sensations to the exposition populace. Beginning Nov. 7 the universal favorite, Art Smith, will again fly up into the clouds and perform strange and hair raising gyrations both afternoon and evenings.

Edward Lemare, the great London

Tuesday night will see pictures that are representative of the highest quality films on the market. Our famous Keystone comedies will be shown regularly every Tuesday and Saturday nights as heretofore. If you attended the show last Tuesday night you were no doubt pleased with the program. Better ones are coming.

Union Services Planned

There will be no services in the Methodist church next Sunday as there is to be a union service at the Methodist South church.

commutation tickets that take one right to the entrance of the exposition. Rates for accommodations have gone down considerably owing to the return of the coast vacationists to their homes which, naturally, has decreased the demand except in the larger hotels, where the rates remain the same as scheduled at the beginning. Many visitors prefer to take rooms and procure their meals at the exposition. Every day thousands of merry-makers may be seen picnicking on the lawns, in the courts or on benches in the gardens, eating their lunches and often their dinners out in the sunshine on the lagoon borders or listening to one of the many fine bands which discourse both popular and classical music for the delectation of the populace at the noon hour and again at the dinner hour.

MIGHTY CALIFORNIA BUILDING AT PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION WILL BE SAVED

Above—California building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the largest building ever built by a state or a nation at an Exposition. Below—Imposing ballroom in the building, where notable functions have been held this year.

PLANS are under way to preserve the great California building, reproducing the architecture of the California missions and housing the most notable collection of exhibits of the Golden State ever assembled. Aside from five acres of space filled with exhibits of California products, it is the headquarters of the women's board of the Exposition and also of the administrative offices of the Exposition. In this building are many restaurants, huge reception halls and ballrooms, one of which is shown in the picture above.

ONLY A FEW DAYS BEFORE THE GREAT FAIR CLOSES

"It Is the Marvel of the Age," Says Thomas A. Edison. "Every One Should See It."

It is only a few days before the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco closes forever on Dec. 4. The great men of the world have acclaimed its wonders. President Arthur Twining Hadley of Yale university said of the Exposition that it was the most wonderful and beautiful Exposition in the history of the world. Thomas Alva Edison, the world famous inventor, said of the Exposition that it was the marvel of the age and that every one should see it. When asked what he considered the most interesting aspect of the Exposition Mr. Edison said: "The Exposition is a composite wonder and no man will have the same estimate of it. The triumphs of science on exhibit, however, are the most significant note of the Exposition, showing all the evolutions of creative genius. They will endure when the beauty of the Exposition is forgotten. I have already said that machines, not men, should carry on warfare if it has to be carried on. The marvels of mechanical achievement on display here convince me that I am right."
