Died at Insane Asylum
Alfred Machado, 75 years of age, for many years a sailor and fisherman on the Coquille river, who was committed from Coos county to the state Insane Asylum at Salem, died several days ago, having been in poor health for a long time. MUST PROTECT THE CITY'S CREDIT SAY THE BUSINESS MEN

A meeting of the business men and taxpayers was called by the city council occupation tax committee—Johnson, Pape, Mast—Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing city finances in general and the occupation tax question. The City Hall was soon packed and a number of citizens took part in the general discussion. H. H. Dufort was first speaker, his talk dealing mostly in personalities directed against Councilman J. W. Mast and later against Engineer Sawyer, which he was invited by the committee to make in writing at the last night's meeting. He had evidently changed his mind, though, for no charges were on hand.

M. Bremer spoke, stating that the occupation tax was illegal, declaring that he had the opinion of the Attorney General on the question.

F. J. Chatburn stated he was there to obtain the views of the citizens on the question of raising the necessary additional revenue to take care of the deficiency left by the loss of saloon licenses. That it was a puzzle to him. And that it was up to all to co-operate and see the matter to a settlement, or sooner or later the city would be subject to a receivership.

J. Ira Sidwell stated it was up to the citizens to support the council. That the administration was doing all it could to keep expenses down and that if the occupation tax was the only way out, it was up to the business men to face it.

W. S. Wells said the saloons going out of business was not the city council's fault and that the citizens should not "kick" that body because an occupational tax was necessary, but that all should co-operate with that body and see the matter to a settlement.

A. S. Elliott said the reckoning was apparently at hand and that it was up to the citizens and business men to get under the burden and see it through.

A number of other spoke, all expressing faith in the present administration. Among these were: E. H. Boyle, W. C. Sellmer, Chris Rasmussen, H. Sabro, Mrs. H. F. Morrison, W. E. Steinhoff and J. E. Walstrom. The meeting adjourned, the consensus of opinion being that the occupation tax was the only way out and that if such was passed it would be easily collected.

Port Commissioner E. E. Johnson of Coquille, who has been quite seriously sick for several weeks, is reported well on the road to recovery.

City Library Notes
The Golden Stair case! Have you seen it? It is just a little grey book mark from the State Library; but on it are the titles of 37 books ranging from "Mother Goose" to the "Odyssey" books that every child should know. Have you heard of Juvenile Book week? It began November 28. The boy scouts of Oregon and the librarians of the state are co-operating to bring before the parents of our state the needs of good reading—really good—for the children.

The local Library now has an exhibit. Everyone interested in juvenile literature is invited to inspect the display. We are trying to counter-balance our financial lack by enthusiasm and earnestness.

MISS AMELIA HENRY, City Librarian.
