

You Can Buy for Less in the Ellingson Building

LAST-MINUTE SHOPPERS

who are always in a hurry and undecided, can find just what they want at this store—we are prepared for just such emergencies.

Leather Novelties—

All the newest shapes in Ladies' Hand Bags—directly from the Eastern market.

Parisian Ivory—

In sets or individual pieces; in great favor with the ladies.

Wicker Baskets—

Made in Japan of native bamboo. Splendid ornaments for the home.

Hand Painted China—

Beautiful pieces and sets, always acceptable presents.

THE ORANGE PHARMACY

Headquarters for Dependable Xmas Gifts

Athena Silver-ware for Xmas

is a gift which is sure to please. Our large and well selected stock is at your disposal.

Christmas Suggestions at Moderate Prices:

HAMILTON WATCHES

Movement only, $12.25 to $60.00.

CUT GLASS (America's Best) From $1.00 to $100.00.

SOUVENIR SPOONS (Sterling) From 50c to $2.50.

THE CLASPS From 50c to $7.50.

LA VALLIERES (14K and 10K) From $2.50 to $60.00.

BRACELET WATCHES $6.50—$13.50—$18.50 and up.

PARKER FOUNTAIN PENS From $2.50 to $20.00.

BIG BEN and BABY BEN "National Alarm, $2.50 each.

FRIENDSHIP LINKS

20 cents and 25 cents.

THIMBLES (Sterling and Gold) From 25c to $5.00.

BROOCHES From 75c to $50.00.

LADIES WATCHES See our special for $13.50—It's a Wonder.

AGATE JEWELRY Charms, Pendants, Rings. Mounted in 14K and 10K, whichever you Choose. Compare our prices.

Cuff Links, $2.50 to $10.00.

Brooches, $1.75 to $15.00.

Scarf Pins, $1.25 to $7.50.

With every $1.00 spent with us you receive a ticket relative to the $150.00 in two diamond rings we are giving absolutely free.

We specialize on our watch repairing and guarantee satisfaction. NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR ENGRAVING.

Boyle Jewelry Co.

Phone 544

WE CARRY NO ACCOUNTS.

Everard H. Boyle, Mgr.

New Goods For Christmas Just Arrived--

New goods that will make ideal Xmas presents arrived on the last boat and are being opened up at

Sidwell's

They consist of Suit Cases, Oxford Bags, Gloves, Shoes and Caps in staple lines, and many other articles which are sure to please.

You have generously remembered your out-of-town friends; it not too late to do your shopping for local friends.

Call and see these goods, in the Ellingson Building

Local News

Pat Hanrahan was a county meat caller last week.

Big Ben and Baby Ben—the Boyle twins—$2.50 each.

Boyle tells you something about giving prizes, in his ad this week. It

Harry Hull has accepted a position with Art Gilbert in the O. K. restaurant.

Mrs. W. E. Best returned on the Brooklyn from a visit with relatives in California.

Deputy Sheriff W. C. Laird was a business caller in Bandon the forepart of the week.

We are exclusive agents for River-ton coal in Bandon. Phone 33, Dippel & Holverson. D21f

Mrs. E. F. Howes, wife of the local wood merchant, has been ill at a local hospital this week.

"Dad" Shields, who was recently injured in a fall, is able to be out exchanging jokes on the streets.

The local auto fans and draymen have put in several days improving the old county road up Oregon avenue hill.

S. G. Whitsett was seen demonstrating his 1916 model "cayuse-mobile" one morning the first of the week.

Miss Ora Jamieson, pupil of the local high school has gone to her home at Riverton to spend the holiday vacation.

Dorothy Langlois was this week granted a divorce in Circuit court from Ray Langlois. Both have been local residents.

Engineer J. S. Sawyer had a crew busy yesterday repairing some broken water mains along Franklin avenue west.

In a spelling match at the local high school last week the girls won over the boys by a percentage of 78 1-2 to 72 1-2.

Mrs. Jack Englander of Oakland, Cal., arrived on the Brooklyn to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Archie Rosa and Miss Nora Solve.

Capt. O. R. Willard says the Wolverine—that "foxy little stranger with a smell o' gasoline"—will soon be purring on the river again.

Chas. Willard returned from Marshfield this week, where he has been working the past summer. He will remain until after the holidays.

Prof. E. B. Kausrud left Monday for Portland on a short trip. During his absence B. N. Harrington has been sworn in as deputy city recorder.

Bear in mind the big masquerade ball given for the benefit of the G. A. R. at Dreamland pavilion Friday evening, December 24th. Prizes will be given.

Col. R. H. Rosa returned Saturday from Portland where he and Secretary Norton of the Port Commission went to interview the government engineers.

E. J. Lindberg of Port Orford was here Saturday enroute to North Bend to visit his son, who is employed as an auto driver on the Gorst & King beach line.

A. J. Marsh, Elk river dairyman and president of the Port Orford commercial club, was in Bandon several days this week purchasing supplies for his big ranch.

Miss Hilde, one of the local teachers, returned from Coquille Tuesday after several days spent at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Endicott of that city.

Miss Kate Chatburn is spending a few days with friends at Myrtle Point. She is an instructor in the local schools, which are now closed for the Christmas vacation.

Misses Smith, Huntington and Baker left on Friday for their homes at Seattle and Portland, respectively, to spend the holidays. The ladies are instructors in the local schools.

Among local attendants at Circuit court in Coquille this week were: W. E. Steinhoff, W. D. Marshall, M. V. Smith, Mrs. Ira Zeh, Mrs. Laura Taylor, Mrs. N. J. Hansen and Miss Maude Young.

The Elizabeth arrived from San Francisco Sunday with the following passengers: Rayner Gelsendorfer, C. F. Miller, Mrs. A. E. Parker, Fred Gray, Fred Nosler, A. R. Hodge, W. S. Hall, L. LeFanger, E. M. Chadwell, C. S. Chadwell.

Miss A. Noreen, instructor in English in the local high school, left Friday for her home in Portland to spend the holidays. She went via Marshfield and the auto stage route. At Marshfield she was the guest of Mrs. J. E. Cowan.

A. A. Jamieson of Curry county hauled the furniture and fixtures of the Bank of Port Orford to Bandon last week. From here they were shipped to Powers. The new institution is to be known as the Bank of Powers.

W. H. Wann of Marshfield, who is to expert the Curry county records, passed through here the first of the week enroute to Gold Beach. After completing the Curry job, Mr. Wann will also give the Coos county official books "the once over."

J. E. Peters, superintendent of the mining operations started by a Portland firm on Cut creek, has gone to Portland to spend the holidays with relatives. All of the company's machinery is now in place and actual mining will commence on Mr. Peter's return.

The Bandon Power company has secured a release from the attachment on their collections made by the Dollar company, and is now gathering in the accounts that had been held up by the sheriff's office. The release was secured in Circuit court.

Fred J. Smith, traveling representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype company's San Francisco office, was in the county this week calling on the various shops using linotypes. He came over to Bandon Tuesday and returned in the afternoon to the Bay, having found local machines in good working condition.

G. H. Bradford, who is in charge of the work that is being done by a San Francisco company at the old Lane mine near Bullards, drove in with teams yesterday expecting to haul out the last consignment of machinery which was due to arrive on the Elizabeth. However, the machinery failed to arrive, and Mr. Bradford will be compelled to wait until the boat returns again before continuing operations. He says he always goes home to San Francisco for Christmas, and would have gone this year if he had not expected the machinery.

"You can buy for less in the Ellingson building."