DEW VALLEY DRIPS

Lawrence Stitt has moved his family from Bandon to the Mrs. Ida Perkins farm. He intends to devote his time to stock raising.

Chas. Davis has his ditches ready for action and will soon be scooping out a large ditch along the edge of the bottom on the Hess farm.

Bert Peterson and Jap Morris are ordering some Kellogg thoroughbred strawberry plants. Provident people will make a note of this item.

F. N. Perkins has been laid up with an attack of pneumonia for the last two weeks.

Chris Richert has moved his milk house to a point about the proper distance from his barn. He has a number of fresh cows already. Henry Hess has also been kindly provided with a bunch of early calves and it is thought the cheese factory will soon be able to start running every other day.

Favorable progress is being made on the Cox fill on the township line road. The dump car system employed works very well in the sandy soil they have to move at present.

Chas. Richert has finished work on a section of the new road coming down the hill from his mill. Loads of lumber won't have to shoot the chutes as they did last year, when this new section is graded.

Jap Morris fell off his farm on day last week and on his descent to level ground came near "capsizing" one of Geo. Henry's holsteins. George ought to carry zeppelin insurance.

BRING IN MUCH MONEY

Mortgage & Bond Bankers of Marshfield Helping to Relieve the Money Situation.

F. E. Conway Co., mortgage and bond bankers of Marshfield, bring much new cash to Coos county to relieve the tight money situation here.

Mr. Alwyn Carstens, vice president of Carstens & Earles, Inc., investment bankers who are one of the outside connections of the Conway Co., has just accepted $30,000 worth of the Conway Co.'s mortgages. These were all situated in Coos county.

The Conway Co. will handle large loans for long periods of time, catering to the farmers' wants but not turning down other loans, if on improved income property with a wide margin of security.

ALCOHOL FROM SEPARATOR

Dairy Machine Can Produce Stuff With a "Kick" Says Farmer

It has been stated here for some time that pure alcohol can be made by running apple cider through a steam separator and not a few of the boys on the farm who have been accustomed to a little "nip" occasionally, have had the new distilling process in their bonnets, as a last resort. But now comes a Clakamas county farmer who tips the whole thing off to the sheriff of that county by asking if it is violating the prohibition law to make it in that way. The letter was turned over to the district attorney who is attempting to solve the problem.

Oregon Man Becomes Vice Consul

Raphael Geisler, U. of O. '12, will sail January 25 for Cologne, Germany, to begin duties as vice-consul. Mr. Geisler took his high school work in Portland and after graduation from the State University, went to Columbia University, N. Y. for a master's degree.

Glee Club May Come Here

A spring vacation trip to Coos county towns is in contemplation by the University of Oregon glee club, which will end the club's out-of-town appearances. During the recent Eastern Oregon tour a loss of $205 was sustained.

A FRIEND TO LEAN UPON

The most comfortable feeling
That the breast of man can get
When the dark of night comes stealing
Over days that brought regret
And he's hurt and bruised and aching
And he thinks his strength is gone,
Is the glad and warm hand-shaking
Of a friend to lean upon.
Let a million strangers doubt me,
Let the hundreds mock and sneer
And say bitter things about me,
I can brush away the tear
And my course refuse to alter
But keep bravely going on
If I know that when I falter
I've a friend to lean upon.

Married in Marshfield

Miss Elizabeth R. Fox of Bandon and N. A. Nelson of Lakeside were married Saturday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Harrington on South Fifth street, Rev. L. Hall officiating with the ring ceremony. Miss Alpha Mauzey and A. A. Lundstrom, the latter of Lakeside, attended the bride and groom. Miss Fox was very becomingly gowned in blue with cream trimmings. She is the charming daughter of J. E. Fox, formerly of Bandon, but who is now located in Aberdeen, Wash. ington, and has a host of friends and acquaintances both on the Bay and in the valley towns. Mr. Nelson is cashier of the Hauser and Hauser company at Lakeside, and is also well known and liked on the Bay. After a few days spent with relatives at Sumner, the young couple will return to Lakeside to make their home. Besides the members of the Harrington family there were present Mrs. Robert Fox and son, Robert, Jr. of Lakeside.—Marshfield Times.

Miss Fox was popular in local social and musical circles for years, being a vocalist of unusual ability. She has a large circle of friends in and about Bandon who are delighted to hear of her happiness.

Six-Year-Old Had Croup

"I have a little girl six years old who has a good deal of trouble with croup," writes W. E. Curry, Evansville, Ind. "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar, obtaining instant relief for her. My wife and I also use it and will say it is the best cure for a bad cold, cough, throat trouble and croup that I ever saw."—Orange Pharmacy.
