Local News

Melvin T. Solve, who has been attending summer school at the University of Oregon, arrived in Bandon Monday evening for a visit with his sisters, Mrs. E. B. Kausrud and Mrs. Archie Rosa. Mr. Solve will return to the university to continue his work in September.

Mrs. Lillian Forshay and daughter, Miss Zoe, leave on the Elizabeth for Seffner, Florida, where they will make their future home. While in California they will stop in Oakland a short while where they will visit with the former's brother, W. A. Reed, and in San Francisco with her son, Ben McKay.

Lakeport Road House now open; boats to rent, fishing and hunting; everyone cordially invited. A3to31

J. B. Stenerson of Spokane, Wash., A. T. Hobson and J. Lyons left today for the Merchant ranch with black sand mining machinery. They claim to have tested the beach sands there and found them very rich in gold and other minerals. They also claim that they have a machine which will save the valuable minerals and that they expect to build six more of the machines here.—Cobs Bay Times.

R. L. Macleay, manager of the Macleay estate company with headquarters at Wedderburn, passed through Bandon on his way down the coast Friday. Just before going to Marshfield early last week Mr. Macleay had an encounter with one of the fishermen on the Rogue river in which the former was severely choked. The fisherman was fined $5 and cost on the charge of assault and battery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Holliston of Creswell, California, were in Bandon the past week on a short vacation. While here Mr. Holliston became interested in myrtle wood and Port Orford cedar. He purchased several pieces of myrtle wood furniture from Wm. Mast and about $10 worth of white cedar lumber from the Acme Planing mill, which will be made into a cedar chest when they return to Creswell.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Coke, of Marshfield were among the Coos Bay people wending their way south into Curry county this week after the elusive deer. They will make camp at the Eddy place. The Sherwoods of Coquille and Horsfalls of Marshfield join them there.

W. S. Wells, Dr. S. J. Mann, J. H. Shields and Frank Catterlin left the latter part of the past week for the "wildest part of Curry county," wherever that may be. They will endeavor to capture the limit of deer, maybe a bear or two apiece, ten or twelve panthers and four or five other species of ferocious animals whose name we can't just now recall.

Harold Johnson, son of Captain and Mrs. Robert Johnson, left Saturday on the Speedwell from Coos Bay for Berkeley, where he will enter the University of California when it opens today. Harold is a graduate of the Bandon High school with the class of 1916 and a good student. While in the local schools he made a record for himself as a debater and basket ball player.

Miss Mary Moore, whose resignation from the teaching force of the local schools was accepted by the board of directors at their last meeting, has returned to California to resume her studies at the state university at Berkeley. Miss Moore left Bandon Saturday, going from here to Marshfield where she took passage on the Speedwell for San Francisco.

The Winegar brothers, well known along the coast of Coos and Curry counties for their dare-devil escapades in small boats on the briny deep, are in bad in Curry county according to the Gold Beach Reporter which says: "The Winegar brothers and the Johnsons, fishermen, have been arrested for fishing within the three mile limit outside the mouth of Rogue river, and they will be taken for trial before the justice of the peace at Port Orford."

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Nielson, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Treadgold, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Laffaw and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Felsheim left the latter part of the week in various autos for the upper Elk river country for a week or more outing trip and deer hunt. Curry county people who have peeped will please take note, and endeavor to protect said animals by shutting them up in the barnyards. Perhaps the warning might apply equally as regards yearling jersey calves.

Local Agent F. Jaenigen of the Southern Pacific states that the passenger fare between Bandon and Portland has been reduced from $10.05 to $9.75. The reduction comes as a result of the completion of the Umpqua river bridge, the company that transferred the passenger and freight for the railroad company at that point, having exacted a tribute of 25 cents each. The fare between Bandon and Eugene is also lowered from $6.35 to $6.05.

One of the pleasant social events of last week was the informal gathering of young folks at the home of Miss Pearl Craine, on Edison avenue, Saturday evening, at which Miss Bernice Spencer a University of Oregon girl, was the guest of honor. Those present were: Misses Bernice Spencer of Eugene, Leta Mast of Coquille, Louise Clausen of Eiverton, Hattie Boak, Pearl Craine, E. E. Leslie of Coquille, Rayner Geisendorfer, Ralph Moore and Harry Crain.

Road to Lower Beach Now Open
C. H. Chandler was in the city yesterday interviewing local committees relative to having the excursion crowds shown the beauties of the lower Bandon beach section. He states the road to the beach in the vicinity of Fish rock is now in shape for auto travel and that some fine ranches in addition to beautiful scenery are attractions of the road. The road leaves the Township line road near the Holbrook homestead a short distance south of town.

Mrs. Zeek Entertains Friends
Two pleasant "Thimble" parties were given by Mrs. C. B. Zeek recently by way of farewell to two of her friends, Mrs. Forrester and Mrs. Morgan. Invited guests to meet Mrs. Forrester were: Mrs. Anki Nelson, Mrs. John Felter, Mrs. Ella Rea, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. McClanahan. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent in discussing current events and long ago happenings, "while needles flew, and silk balls grew, as the many colored pieces were tacked together." Refreshments were served. All parted with Mrs. Forrester with regret, none more so than her next door neighbor, Mrs. Zeek. The Forresters are now located at Weed, Calif.

The second party in honor of Anna M. Morgan of Oting, Wash., was unusually interesting, as four of those present, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Ragan, Mrs. Morgan and the hostess, were Ohio born. One of the ladies states it was providential that the other guest, Mrs. Bonnier Welch was a native Oregonian, or their minds would have dwelt entirely upon the land of youthful recollections. As it were, however, she states, "our tongues were busy with reminiscences of both states. Our fingers were busy, also, and those silk balls doubled in size long before refreshments were served."

STATION DESPAIR.

We must trust the conductor,
most surely,
Why, millions of millions before
Have made this same journey securely
And come to that ultimate
shore,
And we, we will reach it in season,
And, ah, what a welcome is there!
Reflect, then, how out of all reason
To stop at the Station Despair.

Ay, midnights and many a portion
Of bitter black water have we
As we journey from ocean to ocean,
From sea unto ultimate sea,
To the deep sea of seas and all silence
Of passion, concern and of care;
That vast sea of Eden set islands—
Don't stop at the Station Despair!

Go forward, whatever may follow,
Go forward, friend led or alone,
Ah, me, to leap off in some hollow
Or fen, in the night and unknown,
Leap off like a thief; try to hide
You
From angels all waiting you there!
Go forward, whatever betide you—
Don't stop at the Station Despair!
—Jonquin Miller.

Recruiting Officer Coming

E. L. French, recruiting sergeant, U. S. army, of Eugene will be in this city today and tomorrow to enlist men for the army. He states that transportation to the border will be furnished by the government. In connection with the campaign for recruits, the government has appointed all second, third and fourth class postmasters recruiting agents, with authority to accept recruits who may apply and can pass the examinations. Postmaster W. J. Sweet has received notice to this effect from headquarters.

I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs Entertain Official

Lodge Room Scene of Jolly Gathering in Honor of the Grand Master, Monday Evening.

Members of the local Encampment and Rebekahs turned out in force Monday evening to greet H. A. Westbrook of Portland, grand master of the I. O. O. F. lodge in Oregon, who was here on his annual official visit. From here Mr. Westbrook went to Coquille, where he met with the county seat lodge Tuesday evening. He is spending the week with the various chapters of the order in the county.

Mr. Westbrook's talk on the good of the order was the red letter event on the program of the evening. Following the business meeting and reception of the grand master the ladies of the Rebekahs served a sumptuous banquet in the dining room of the hall.

The I. O. O. F. and affiliated order are among the leading lodges of this city. They are active and growing organizations and from rumors escaping, it is apparent the membership could not be convinced that there is another organization on earth of greater merit.

SALMON SEASON PROSPECTS ARE GOOD SAY FISHERMEN

Nass and Macleay Canneries Are Preparing to Handle a Large Run—Prices Are Good.

According to the few fishermen who are taking advantage of the early run of salmon in the river the prospects for a banner season, as far as the number of fish are concerned, are exceptionally bright this year.

For the past week or more three boats have been fishing with favorable tide and the average catches have been running from 10 to 12 fish, which are being sold to local consumers at five cents a pound. With the exception of one or two silversides all of the fish caught so far have been fairly large, some of them weighing around 40 pounds.

Both the Nass and the Macleay canneries are preparing to handle a large run this year and it is thought that the price paid for the fish will be high. At present the Macleay company is paying $1.10 net to fishermen for each fish at their Rogue river plant. With the run of fish which will enter the river here after the first rain, it is probable that seining will commence.

Coos Bay Railroad Jubilee Wants a Bride

BANDON

Has Two Candidates

MISS THERESA MANCIET
MISS FLORA McLEOD

Get busy and boost for your favorite, she has a good chance to win. The one receiving the highest vote in the county becomes the bride; the highest in each town becomes a bridesmaid. Marshfield and North Bend have several times as many candidates as Bandon.

Votes on Sale at Various Business Houses in city and by Candidates. Ten Votes for one cent. The funds go towards defraying the expenses of Coos County day. Remember Bandon gets her share of the benefit so let's all do our part. Make this contest a success.
